FURTHER EVIDENCE OF ARBUTHNOT'S FRIENDSHIP

(Special to The Daily News.)

Victoria, Oct. 23.—Mr. Arbuthnot, one of the directors of the Pacific Coal Mines Company, in giving evidence today, stated that the giving of the $105,000 in shares to Dr. H. E. Young was the fulfillment of a promise made in 1906, before Dr. Young became a cabinet minister.

Mr. Arbuthnot said that the minister was an old friend whom he had promised to remember, if the company ever reached a stage of prosperity, and so fulfilled his promise in 1909, when his chance came.

MONTHLY MEETING OF HOSPITAL BOARD

At a meeting of the Hospital Board yesterday it was decided to increase the salary of Miss Carmichael to $75 a month. The board, in view of the reduced number in the hospital and the urgent need of economy, decided to reduce the salary attaching to the position of matron.

Yesterday after considering the extra work and the acceptable manner in which it was being done, an increase was made to $75, which is still less than the old salary by $40 a month.

Tenders were opened for coal supply. The lowest tender was accepted, that of McCaffery & Albert, at $8.35 a ton, which was one cent lower than the next lowest tender.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

The Westholme program is slightly different from that advertised yesterday. The leading feature is a two-act drama entitled "The Mystery of Henri Villard." It is a story of the south. "The Iron Hand of Law," another installment of "The Road of Strife," finds little Alene behind the prison bars on a charge of murder. "All on Account of Towser" is a comedy which includes a unique double elopement. "Ham, the Lineman," finds Ham in his element in a glorious mix-up. An interesting Hearst-Selig Gazette concludes the program.

WORLD'S MOST FAMOUS CRICKETER PASSED AWAY

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Oct. 23.—Dr. W. G. Grace, the world's most famous cricketer, is dead at the age of 67.

Famous the world over as "W. G.," Dr. Grace earned a place in the annals of the great English game peculiarly his own. In the earlier days of the game, when grounds were rough and running up huge scores was a much harder task than it is today, Dr. Grace stood head and shoulders above any batsman, while at the same time he generally managed to come out near the top of the bowling averages. He played for England at the age of 17 and was still capable of taking a place on an international team at the age of 50.

Born near Bristol, in Gloucestershire, he was one of three famous brothers, the others being also stalwarts in the national game. His elder brother, "E.M.," at well over seventy years of age, still plays a prominent part in local matches. "G. F.," the younger brother, was cut off in his prime, when he showed signs of rivalling the great "W. G." in skill.

Dr. Grace wrote several books on the game, and in his later years published a book of anecdotes of his earlier experiences, which were as interesting as they were amusing.

He graduated in medicine from Edinburgh University, in Scotland.

JOFFRE 22 HOURS AT HIS POST IN BATTLE

Paris, Oct. 21.—A Paris paper today gives an account of how General Joffre, of the French forces, directed the operations during the battle in the Champagne region. Taking a post close to the front, in an innkeeper's kitchen, where a telephone had been installed, General Joffre, bending over a large scale map, listened to officers at the telephones, at intervals giving his orders in an absolutely calm voice.

In this position, the newspaper account says, General Joffre remained more than twenty-two hours—from 9 o'clock in the morning—neither eating nor sleeping during the whole time. After marking certain places on the map, he put down his pencil and said: "It is over; let us go and take a bite."

MAJESTIC THEATRE

An Essany three-act society drama entitled "The Return of Richard Neal" heads the bill at the Majestic. It depicts the scheme of a clever crook, who poses as a count in order to play his thieving game more easily. The story is full of thrilling scenes and is well staged and splendidly acted. "His Fairy Godmother" and "Sophie's Homecoming" are both good comedies. "Helen's sacrifice," a pleasing little drama completes an entertaining program. Monday night sees the staging of the 13th episode of "The Broken Coin."

Albert Davidson, general agent for the Grand Trunk Pacific at Prince Rupert, reports that the company has decided to continue their summer schedule of three boats each way per week between Prince Rupert and Seattle until further notice.
