THE DAILY NEWS

In the Letter Box

Editor Daily News,
Dear Sir:—At an executive meeting of the Prince Rupert branch Canadian Red Cross Society held on October 22nd, 1915, Mr. G. W. Morrow was appointed the official publicity agent for the Society in Prince Rupert, and he is, therefore, the only authorized person permitted to insert any article appertaining to the affairs or undertakings or work of this Society in the public press of the city.

You will, therefore, please bear this in mind when receiving copy with reference to Red Cross matters.

Very truly yours,
J. B. ROERIG, Sec.

Editor, The Daily News,

Dear Sir:—It gives me pleasure to inform you that at the Annual General meeting of the Canadian Red Cross Society held on October 22nd, 1915, Mr. G. W. Morrow moved, seconded by Mr. Wm. Manson, was unanimously carried that a vote of thanks be tendered the press of Prince Rupert for the very generous and patriotic spirit shown by the press of the city towards the Red Cross Society in giving unstinted support and publicity to the various undertakings conducted by the Society.

It is certain that the results that have been achieved are due in large measure to the liberal publicity so cheerfully given, and we want you to know that it has certainly been appreciated.

Yours very truly,
J. B. ROERIG, Sec.

"QUEEN AND ADVENTURER"
AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

The Majestic tonight and tomorrow presents a remarkable four-act Pathe drama, entitled "Queen and Adventurer." It is an intensely dramatic story of the reign of Henry VIII. in which the intrigue of court life during that troublous time is truthfully depicted.

The play circles around the life of Princess Mary, a banished daughter of King Henry, who succeeds her brother on the throne. Meantime she has fallen in love with an Italian adventurer. The piece is beautifully staged and is splendidly acted, and should prove to be one of the most attractive features ever screened at the Majestic.

"Spitball Sadie," an extremely amusing comedy, and a Pathe Gazette completes a high-class program. The Gazette shows the latest Paris fashions, in color, which should delight the ladies.

"THE UNAFRAID" AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

The Westholme Theatre tonight and tomorrow presents "The Unafraid," a four-act Lasky feature in which Rita Jolivet makes her screen debut. This drama is one of the most romantic ever screened. The scenes are laid in the hills of Montenegro, and the story is of an American girl, Delight Warren, who daringly goes to Montenegro to marry a dashing Montenegrin nobleman. She is captured by the brother of her fiance and taken to his castle, where he forces her to marry him, so that it shall be impossible for her to wed his brother, who is a traitor to his country and desires Delight's wealth to use it against his fatherland.

It is an absorbing play, full of unusual situations and is certain to prove a delight to all. "Billie's Debut," a most laughable comedy, featuring Billie Reeve, the famous English comedian, completes a magnificent program.

INSPECTION

INSPECTION of the Gillette Safety Razor
by mechanical experts and men of judgment shows clearly WHY seven million shavers prefer it.

The thin, flat blade is tempered to a uniform hardness impossible in an ordinary thick-backed razor. As a natural result, it takes an edge unequalled for even keenness.

The curved holder supports the blade close to the shaving edges, preventing all that vibration which makes hollow-ground open blades and other safeties pull and irritate when they strike a stiff beard.

Then there's the adjustable feature, exclusive to the Gillette.

By a simple turn of the wrist you can regulate a Gillette shave to a nicety—light, medium or as close as you like.

The toothed guard ensures safety, and permits such free and rapid strokes that a smooth, clean Gillette shave need take no more than three minutes.

Inspect the Gillette and you'll buy it—and shave in comfort thereafter. Go to it! Your Druggist, Jeweler or Hardware Dealer will gladly parade the Gillette Line before you.

"Bulldog", "Aristocrat" and Standard Sets, $5.00—Pocket Editions, $5.00 to $6.00—Combination Sets, $6.50 up.
