GOOD SHOW AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

"The Love of Women" is the ancient story graphically retold in three splendid reels at the Westholme. It is a society drama, in which the stage and the studio play important parts. A young artist neglects his fiancée when he becomes infatuated with a charming actress and is on the verge of disaster when a dashing elder brother appears on the scene, cleans up the trouble and marries the actress, leaving the youngster, who has at last come to his senses, to return to his former state of happiness. It is a striking play, splendidly staged and convincingly acted.

"Bud and Ham" in "The Hypnotic Monkey" provide as much merriment as Charlie Chaplin usually does, while "Two Bold Bad Men" become remarkably docile when a buried policeman starts shooting from below. "The Unsparing Sword," the tenth installment of "The Road O' Strife," depicts the trial of little Alene for the murder of Gilbert Jerome.

EDISON FEATURE AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

"Her Proper Place," an Edison three reel feature is the headliner at the Majestic tonight. It is particularly pleasing drama, depicting the struggles of a girl who, though not exactly a Cinderella, has always had to take second place at home. Falling in love with Senator Northrup, an ardent reformer, she ventures to Washington, where she becomes a stenographer. The senator is shot by the leader of a gambling gang, and the girl saves his life, and eventually becomes his wife, though many interesting things happen in the meantime. Incidentally the senator expresses a few home truths, such as "Corruption exists because we permit it."

There is also a thrilling railroad drama, a good comedy and a whole film of clever cartoons of "Dreamy Dud."

INSPECTION

INSPECTION of the Gillette Safety Razor by mechanical experts and men of judgment shows clearly WHY seven million shavers prefer it.

The thin, flat blade is tempered to a uniform hardness impossible in an ordinary thick-backed razor. As a natural result, it takes an edge unequalled for even keenness.

The curved holder supports the blade close to the shaving edges, preventing all that vibration which makes hollow-ground open blades and other safeties pull and irritate when they strike a stiff beard.

Then there's the adjustable feature, exclusive to the Gillette.

By a simple turn of the wrist you can regulate a Gillette shave to a nicety—light, medium or as close as you like.

The toothed guard ensures safety, and permits such free and rapid strokes that a smooth, clean Gillette shave need take no more than three minutes.

Inspect the Gillette and you'll buy it—and shave in comfort thereafter. Go to it! Your Druggist, Jeweler or Hardware Dealer will gladly parade the Gillette Line before you.

"Bulldog," "Aristocrat" and Standard Sets, $5.00—Pocket Editions, $5.00 to $6.00—Combination Sets, $6.50 up.
