"THE SILENT CHORD" AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

The chief item at the Majestic tonight and tomorrow is a three-reel Pathe masterpiece photoplay entitled "The Silent Chord." This is an intensely dramatic story of a man who has been released from a long term of imprisonment, and who is unaware of the fact that a sister, who was a baby when he was sent down, is now the wife of a millionaire. The ex-convict is now a confirmed criminal and at once looks around for a "crib to crack" and fixes on the house of this millionaire. The millionaire's wife hears the burglar at work and appears on the scene. Unaware of her identity, the thief sees in her the exact image of his mother and ultimately their relationship is made plain. She hides the fact of her brother being the burglar and her husband mistakes him for a lover, with the result that she is put under guard. Complications ensue, and the brother meets his death at the hands of the guard, and in the long run the whole situation is made clear. It is a play full of human and dramatic interest.

There is also a splendid Pathe Gazette, showing the latest British news items, and two real good comedies.

INSPECTION

INSPECTION of the Gillette Safety Razor
 by mechanical experts and men of judgment shows clearly WHY seven million shavers prefer it.

The thin, flat blade is tempered to a uniform hardness impossible in an ordinary thick-backed razor. As a natural result, it takes an edge unequalled for even keenness.

By a simple turn of the wrist you can regulate a Gillette shave to a nicety—light, medium or as close as you like.

The curved holder supports the blade close to the shaving edges, preventing all that vibration which makes hollow-ground open blades and other safeties pull and irritate when they strike a stiff beard.

The toothed guard ensures safety, and permits such free and rapid strokes that a smooth, clean Gillette shave need take no more than three minutes.

Inspect the Gillette and you'll buy it—and shave in comfort thereafter. Go to it! Your Druggist, Jeweler or Hardware Dealer will gladly parade the Gillette Line before you.

Then there's the adjustable feature, exclusive to the Gillette.

"Bulldog", "Aristocrat" and Standard Sets, $5.00—Pocket Editions, $5.00 to $6.00—Combination Sets, $6.50 up.
