A SPLENDID SHOW AT THE MAJESTIC THEATER

The audience at the Majestic Dan Kean returned from Alice last night enjoyed every minute of the show. The star feature a Selig three-act drama of political life, entitled "The Clause in the Constitution," reveals the H. S. Wallace left on a business schemes of a political grafter and how they went astray at the last moment through the overlooking of one little clause. The story is strikingly realistic, while a delightful love story threads its way R .B. McGinnis, of the Dolly throughout. The hero is a bright more than a match for the grafter and finally carries off the politi-

"The Stolen Engine" is a thrilling railroad drama which grips. J. V. Rittenhouse returned from The comedies are of the best. 'Versus Sledge Hammers' tickled the audience greatly and Bud and Ham in a Chinese laundry simply brought down the house. Those worthies didn't do a thing to the 'Chinks," a bushel or two of wearing apparel and the laundry T. H. Johnson, manager of the and its occupants generally. There isn't a dull moment from start to finish.

A Suggestion for Efficient Economy

Throughout the Empire has gone the call for personal economy to meet the extraordinary demands of the war. Here is a timely suggestion to men who have been spending from $25.00 to $75.00 a year on barber shop shaves:

Invest five dollars in a

GILLETTE Safety-Razor

and shave yourself at home.

The saving will not be limited to money—the time you'll gain will be even more important, for the morning shave with the Gillette need not take more than five minutes.

And the comfort rivals the economy. Though you never shaved yourself before, you'll have no trouble in getting a clean, cool, safe shave with the Gillette Safety Razor. No more waiting your turn in the chair-no more breaks in the morning's work-no more dependence on unknown barbers when travelling, for the Gillette works anywhere.

Truly, the man with a Gillette is an efficient economist. Get one yourself to-day. "Bulldog", "Aristocrat" or Standard Sets cost $5. -Pocket Editions $5. to $6.-Combination Sets $6.50 up. Your Hardware Dealer or Jeweler will show you an assortment.

Gillette Safety Razor Co. of Canada, Limited Office and Factory-Gillette Bldg., Montreal.
