

VIOLENT ATTACKS OF DYSPEPSIA

Suffered Tortures Until She Tried "Fruit-a-lives"

St. JEAN DE MATHA, Jan. 27th, 1914.
"After suffering for a long time with Dyspepsia, I have been made well by 'Fruit-a-lives.' I suffered so much that at last I would not dare to eat for I was afraid of dying. Five years ago, I received samples of 'Fruit-a-lives' and after taking them I felt relief. Then I sent for three boxes and I kept improving until I was well. I quickly regained my lost weight—and now I eat, sleep and digest well—in a word, I am fully recovered, thanks to 'Fruit-a-lives.'

GERMANY DUPED BY THE KRUPP COMPANY

Krupp's have sold to Germany the most inefficient navy that could well be imagined (says a writer in the London Magazine.) When that fact is at last realized, we may at last see what so many students of sociological problems have foretold—the revolt of industrial Germany against its military rulers.

Krupps play so large a part in the make-up of German naval and military power that we are apt to regard the firm as part and parcel of German nationality. It is, in fact, nothing of the sort. It is a commercial concern out for profits, and it has furnished munitions of war to almost every nation under the sun.

The Germans, who pride themselves on their business methods, have given Krupp's a free hand in furnishing the armaments of the German warships. There has been practically no competition whatever, and the result is that German warships, class by class, are about the most feebly-armed in the world. The Krupp firm is the embodiment of German militarism. In the Tagliche Rundschau, the Neueste Nachrichten, and a half dozen other newspapers owned by the company, the future of Germany at sea has been painted in the most glowing colors, and all the time the German navy has been palmed off by this same firm with guns which other nations had abandoned years before as obsolete.
