Give Jewelry For Christmas

It is always treasured and kept. Good jewelry is not an extravagance; it keeps its value forever, and nothing gives the receiver more pleasure. The jewelry you wear shows your taste and to a certain extent your social and financial standing.

A nice diamond ring on a gentleman's finger places him at once several notches higher in most people's estimation.

Many people buy diamonds as an investment, knowing it to be the only way they are sure of saving their money. We can give you good values.

A VIGNETTE FROM THE WESTERN FRONT

"Just as I finish breakfast a man rushes in, 'Our aeroplane's scrapping with a Hun, sir.' I seize my glasses and dash outside. There are four machines overhead. The Hun is distinct by the shape of his tail. He is making for his own lines, but it is too late. A monoplane is over him and swoops down like a hawk, the Hun turns and finds a B. E. biplane alongside of him. He nose-dives several hundred feet and tries for his own lines again, but another B. E. has dived across him, and he is headed again! He turns once more and tries to climb; he looks like getting away, but the Morane has been climbing and now dives straight at him—only misses him by a foot or so. (I hear that the Morane's gun got jammed at this critical moment.) The Hun, apparently flustered, turns across a B. E.—pop, pop, pop goes the machine gun—the Hun comes to ground. Down come our machines to claim their bird! More power to them."—Daily Chronicle.

SIGHT FIRE

About 2:30 this morning, the Peter Pan Bakery, near the city hall, had a narrow escape from serious damage by fire. Fortunately a member of the police staff discovered the outbreak before it had made any great headway, and the brigade very quickly extinguished the blaze. An overheated oven was the cause of the trouble.

Application forms for the Dominion government war bonds are to be had at the Royal Bank of Canada.
