QUESTION OF SERIAL BONDS WAS DISCUSSED

The draft of the private bill to be presented at the next session of the legislature was brought down by the city solicitor at the city council last night.

Ald. Dybhayn said he was no financial or legal expert and, for his part, would be quite satisfied to have the draft bill taken as read.

Ald. Montgomery said that there were several things in it which he objected to on principle. He understood that the new scheme of financing would cost the tax payers more than the present system.

The city treasurer explained several of the knotty points and a long discussion ensued, in which Ald. Montgomery insisted that the change would cost tax payers an extra mill per annum. The city treasurer pointed out that the extra cost would later on be absorbed and that, in the long run, the taxpayers would be the gainers.

It was finally decided to discuss the matter fully at a special meeting called for Friday night, when Mr. Johnson will bring down an exhaustive report on the scheme, and the bill will be fully discussed clause by clause.

Be on deck at the Liberal rooms on Friday.
