

SHARP ATTACK REPULSED

Dangerous Condition Relieved Just In Time By "Fruit-a-tives"

MR. F. J. CAVEEN

632 Gerrard St. East, Toronto.

For two years, I was a victim of Acute Indigestion and Gas In The Stomach. It afterwards attacked my heart, and I had pains all over the body, so I could hardly move around. I tried all kinds of medicines but none of them did me any good. At last, acting on the advice of a friend, I decided to try "Fruit-a-tives". I bought the first box last June, and now I am well, after using only three boxes. I recommend "Fruit-a-tives" to anyone suffering from indigestion, no matter how acute".

AN ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING AT LIBERAL HEADQUARTERS

and the building of the G. T. P., and Prince Rupert drydock, and quoted figures comparing trade returns in 1896 with those of 1914, nearly all of which had been trebled or quadrupled.

He next dealt with the Laurier naval policy, quoting speeches made by George E. Foster and Robert Borden approving of it, and refusing to entertain the idea of a contribution policy.

Laurier's proposal to build five cruisers and six destroyers was accepted by both parties, and placed before the Imperial conference in London. Australia at once took up the idea with what glorious results we know. In 1910 Laurier took over drydocks at Esquimalt and Halifax and the Niobe and Rainbow as training ships.

Suddenly there was a change. A bye-election in Quebec came along and the policy was to beat Laurier at any cost. "A Nationalist was put up by the Tories and the naval policy made the issue. Men in uniforms were sent amongst the farmers, listing their boys in case they were needed for Laurier's navy." The result was a Nationalist victory, for which the Tories have been paying the price ever since.

In 1914, the first thing the Nationalists did was to ask if the Borden government would repeal the Laurier naval act. Hazen answered "yes," but it is still on the statutes. Mr. Stork referred scathingly to McBride's attempt to "form the nucleus of a navy in the purchase of two American submarines."

Referring to Bob Rogers' "drydock" speech at Vancouver, he said that, had Laurier remained in power, Prince Rupert drydock would have been busily occupied and a fleet sailing the Pacific from this port.

Mr. Stork next dealt humorously with the post office site, and the Tories' effort to keep the water down, and then tackled the war contracts scandals, showing where huge profits had been made by firms represented on the shell committee.

Referring to reciprocity, on which Laurier had been defeated, he said that the Tories diverted the issue on that occasion to a naval question in Quebec, a religious question in Ontario, and to whatever suited them elsewhere.

He described the building of the G. T. P. as the crowning act of Laurier's great career. Sir Wilfrid put Prince Rupert on the map and the grand old man said recently that he hoped to live to see the day when his plans to make of Prince Rupert a great and flourishing city would bear fruit.

J. H. Myers, proprietor of the Terrace Dispatch, who happened in to town last night, expressed great appreciation of the speeches delivered. He congratulated the Liberals on the acquiring of such fine quarters, and assured them that they were not asleep in Terrace. They were organizing there strongly. He said the Tories would try every possible means to win as they dare not let the Liberals have a chance to get at the real truth regarding affairs in the province. However, just as the Germans lost the war at the battle of the Marne, the defeat of the McBride government started last March, when Sir Richard declared the election and drew back. Every day the Tories are losing ground and nothing can save them from utter rout.
