SEVEN-REEL SHOW AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

There is another big seven-reel show at the Westholme tonight, beginning with the 12th episode of "The Diamond from the Sky." "To the Highest Bidder" is the title of this thrilling installment of the great $800,000 serial.

There is another new feature in the "Urban Gazette" an entirely British production showing scenes in the Clyde, the great warship building district in Scotland. This should be of particular interest at the present time.

"Sally Castleton, Southerner" is a very fine three-act drama which provides some superb acting and splendid staging. A real good comedy, "Cocksure Jones," a comic detective story, completes a great program. "Kindling" a great five act drama is coming on Wednesday, and "The Spoilers," in 9 acts on the 16th.

ATHLETIC CLUB

There will be a meeting of Prince Rupert Athletic Club in McIntyre Hall tonight at 8 o'clock.

Will Your "Boy" Spend Christmas
"Somewhere in France"?
Then help him spend it Merrily!

Nothing is too good to send to the boys who are serving King and Country. But let our gifts show thought and judgment as well as good-will and love.

Among the few really acceptable gifts—snakes and pipes, chocolates and sweet biscuits, fountain pens and toothbrushes, toilet and shaving supplies—the Gillette Safety Razor ranks as a warm favorite, for one of the real luxuries of trench life is a clean, comfortable Gillette shave.

It's a luxury the lucky ones share with their pals, so send along plenty of extra blades. If he has a Gillette already, a few boxes of blades will go far toward making him the most popular man in his Company.

Welcome as it is on the firing line, the Gillette is even more keenly appreciated in the hospitals. With it the wounded can shave themselves safely, easily and regularly. They certainly do enjoy the Gillette—and Doctors and Nurses can scarcely speak well enough of it.

Gillette "Bulldog" and Standard Sets cost $5.00 each—compact Pocket Editions $5.00 to $6.00—Combination Sets, including Soap, Brush, etc., $6.50 up. If you wish it, your Druggist, Jeweler or Hardware Dealer will arrange delivery through us, at the Front, of the Set you select, without shipping expense to you.
