EVIDENCE IN PORT SINGTON MURDER CASE

between him and Pitman. Pitman staggered down the steps and down the street.

Murphy, who was lying on the street, asked for help. He took hold of Murphy's arm when Ohara came running back with a knife and witness ran, Ohara following.

Cross Examined.

Cross examined by Mr. Shoebottom, witness said that Kameda went round the counter and did not jump over it. He did not see Nagano drive the blow home. When Pitman ran away, Ohara and Nagano followed him.

Cross examined by Mr. Patmore witness said he was sure that Kameda had a cleaver. When Nagano swung round he had the knife raised above his head. He brought the knife down in the direction of Pitman. He clearly saw the blood on Nagano's left arm after he had swung the knife.

Charles Glacy.

Charles Glacy said that he lived near the cafe. People running past the house on the night of July 30th woke him up. He saw a man lying on the street, but thought it was a drunk. Kameda came past flashing a light, and asked him where the police were.

Cross examined by Mr. Shoebottom witness said that Kameda was very excited and said that a drunken man was breaking up the restaurant.

Harry Berryman.

Harry Berryman, who lived in the same building as the cafe, said he was awakened by the sound of breaking glass downstairs. He looked out and saw Carlson and Pitman talking. They then entered the cafe. He heard another crash and looked out again, and saw Nagano standing in front of the restaurant. He saw two men and two women standing and Ohara came running up. He told Ohara that if he had trouble he should call the police.

Will Your "Boy" Spend Christmas "Somewhere in France"?

Then help him spend it Merrily!

Nothing is too good to send to the boys who are serving King and Country. But let our gifts show thought and judgment as well as good-will and love.

Among the few really acceptable gifts—smokes and pipes, chocolates and sweet biscuits, fountain pens and toothbrushes, toilet and shaving supplies—the Gillette Safety Razor ranks as a warm favorite, for one of the real luxuries of trench life is a clean, comfortable Gillette shave.

It's a luxury the lucky ones share with their pals, so send along plenty of extra blades. If he has a Gillette already, a few boxes of blades will go far toward making him the most popular man in his Company.

Welcome as it is on the firing line, the Gillette is even more keenly appreciated in the hospitals. With it the wounded can shave themselves safely, easily and regularly. They certainly do enjoy the Gillette—and Doctors and Nurses can scarcely speak well enough of it.

Gillette "Bulldog" and Standard Sets cost $5.00 each—compact Pocket Editions $5.00 to $6.00—Combination Sets, including Soap, Brush, etc., $6.50 up. If you wish it, your Druggist, Jeweler or Hardware Dealer will arrange delivery through us, at the Front, of the Set you select, without shipping expense to you.
