SPLENDID GAZETTE AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

"The Diamond from the Sky" continues its exciting career at the Westholme, where Lottie Pickford, as a dainty little gypsy girl, continues to charm large audiences. This week's installment is not a whit behind its predecessors in interest. The Urban Gazette this week shows the awful effects of asphyxiating gases upon organic matter. This is one of the most remarkable features ever shown. There are also some splendid views of beautiful New Zealand. 11.

There is a good three-act drama and a lively comedy, making a very fine seven reel program. 11.

"THE SPOILERS" COMING TO THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

It has been announced that the big Selig production "The Spoilers" has been secured at tremendous cost, and will be shown in Prince Rupert on December 16th and 17th at the Westholme Opera House. 11.

We learn that this film was condemned by the censor of British Columbia on October 23rd, on the grounds that it was "immoral." The matter was then taken up and a private exhibition given at which were present all the newspaper men of Vancouver, members of the clergy, and various prominent officials of the city. The general verdict of all was that the production was the greatest picture that has ever appeared in the Dominion and no reason could be seen by anyone present for condemning it. An appeal was then made to the attorney-general who after viewing the picture, instructed the censor to pass it at once. Through the fairness of the attorney-general the people of this province have been given an opportunity to witness the greatest photoplay that has ever been produced. It is nine reels long, taking over two hours for a single presentation. No play ever created such a sensation in Vancouver as did "The Spoilers" as was testified by the fact that the first week of its presentation at the Colonial Theatre, over twenty thousand people witnessed it, all anxious to see the popular picture over which there had been so much discussion. The general verdict of all was that the production contained nothing suggestive or vulgar, and could not in any way be termed "immoral." It is simply a big, red-blooded, thrilling story of Alaska life and will appeal to all. 11.

R. J. McDonnell, of New Hazelton, left for the south this morning. Jack has been seriously ill for some weeks, and has gone south to consult a specialist. 11.
