

Martyred Belgium Cries for FOOD!

You have Plenty — Share it!

We cannot—we MUST NOT let the destitute Belgians starve! No victory could be lastingly glorious if it involved the decimation by famine of a small nation that deliberately sacrificed itself rather than sacrifice honor!

Earl Curzon of Kedleston, says:

"We have to relieve from privation, and from worse, these unhappy people during the forthcoming winter, the second winter which they have passed under these cruel conditions; we have to keep alive their vital resources, to support their courage, and enable them to continue to endure."

Belgian Relief Fund

has been and is administered with an Efficiency and Economy never before equalled in Public Relief Work.

All accounts are audited, and every pound of food and supplies is accounted for. The arrangements are absolutely effective for securing that none of the food or money goes into the hands of the Germans, is requisitioned by military authorities, or in any way diverted from the object for which it is given.

Nearly 3,000,000 Belgians must depend this winter on charity! Without help hundreds of thousands will starve! We in Canada have plenty! In the name of humanity and of the cause for which we are fighting, let us do our part toward saving these heroic allies!

ANOTHER HENRY FORD WHO DID "PIECE WORK"

Philadelphia, Dec. 27.—A man named Henry Ford applied for enlistment today at the local recruiting office of the United States marine corps.

"I have been doing piece work,"
he told Sergt. Walter E. Carel, who questioned him regarding former employment, with a view to determining the man's moral fitness for Uncle Sam's sea soldiers.

Carel gasped in amazement
and was writing down "f. o. b.
Detroit" and other irrelevant things on the application blank, when Henry Ford supplemented his statement with, "you see I am a molder by trade, and I've been working 'piece work' on truck casings over at South Bethlehem."

Ford could not pass the required examination, however, and was rejected by the medical examiner for "weak heart."

ARE YOU A JUDGE OF WATCHES

or do you merely go by the

It is not generally known

And can you tell the age and condition of a watch, and if it is adjusted to heat and cold or positions and whether the adjustment has been destroyed.

All these things we do for you when you buy your watch

- FACT HUNGER -

As children, our first demand is for nourishment; our second for facts.

All through life we go about searching for information.

We make a new acquaintance;
but before we will accept him
as a friend or invite him to our home we ask for facts about him.

We visit a foreign land; and from the moment we step across its border we are asking questions—
searching for facts.

We are asked to try a new food product; isn't it instinctive
with us to ask at once:

"Who makes this new article?"

"How is it made? what goes into it?"

"Is it worth the price charged for it?"

Facts—we are simply hungry for them.

Strange, isn't it, that we should so often have to search for them? Odd, that some manufacturers still withhold the facts about their product. Not always because they are facts to be ashamed of—for there are many worthy articles yet unadvertised.

But it will not be so much longer. The fact-hunger of the human race is becoming keener and keener. The more facts we get, the keener our relish for more of them.

Soon it will be impossible to sell a man or a woman anything until everything has been told about the goods that can be told through Advertising.

The public has discovered that Advertising tells much-needed facts—that, in fact, Advertising satisfies fact-hunger.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
