THE MAYORALTY

To the Electors of the City of Prince Rupert,
Ladies and Gentlemen:—In response to the wishes of a large number of ratepayers, I have consented to again become a candidate for the office of mayor for 1916. In the past, I have always made it a point of always being on the job in carefully guarding the affairs of the city along the lines of impartiality, practicability, economy based upon efficiency, and the preservation and success of our public utilities.
If these efforts have met with your approval, might I again solicit your support as a means of the continuation of such a policy for the next year?
Yours truly,
S. M. NEWTON.

"FOGHORN" MACDONALD RISEN FROM THE RANKS

Ottawa, December 30.—"Foghorn" Macdonald, so named because he has a voice which rises above the roar of battle, has been fighting in Flanders ever since the war started. Foghorn, who is known from Alaska to Cripple Creek and back again as a man with a heart as big as his voice, just naturally couldn't keep out of the fight. He is a Glengarry Macdonald and the Macdonalds were never backward at that sort of thing. So though he had been a rich man in his time or rather from time to time as gold miners usually are, he didn't wait for a commission, but went as a private. He went with the first draft of the first contingent—in fact he couldn't get away fast enough.

Of course Neil Macdonald—that is "Foghorn's" real name—hadn't been drilling very long before they discovered that he had the makings and they promptly promoted him Corporal. Also he wasn't long on the firing line before they realized that he possessed the fifty-seven varieties of courage from two o'clock in the morning kind to the day after tomorrow and also a gift of leadership, which couldn't be allowed to go to waste. Besides he had a fund of humor, and a knack of rollicking anecdote which brightened the lives of his trench comrades and made him as welcome as a letter from home. So they made him a Sergeant because he was brave and blithe when the bullets were flying, gave him his step up on sheer merit and "Foghorn" felt correspondingly honored. But there his career stopped for a long time. Sergeant he was, but he couldn't seem to fly any higher. Young Captain Hughes, whose father was Minister of Militia, had shot up to be brigadier-general in no time, but Private Neil Macdonald, who had no pull and was working his way up under fire, had a longer journey to go. However, it's a long road that has no turning and presently, pull or no pull, they had to make "Foghorn" a lieutenant. They made him lieutenant because he had earned it, and the promotion didn't come from Ottawa either, but from the general on the field, so you may be sure it was the real thing.

The battlefield had come to understand that "Foghorn" must have a job more in keeping with that tremendous bass voice of his, a voice that made the German cannon hoarse trying to shout it down. So it's Lieutenant Foghorn Macdonald now and if you like you may compare this big, upstanding, broad-chested thunder-voiced Macdonald from Glengarry who fought his way up with his own strong right arm with the pale little lieutenants you see around you. The little lieutenants with spindly legs and misplaced eyebrows for moustaches, who don't know anything about soldiering except that they would like to be lieutenants and who coax father to get it for them and who will be taken off the job

BOXING MATCH OFF

The Scandinavian League will hold its annual general meeting Tuesday, January 11th, at 8 p. m. All Scandinavians please attend. JOHN DYBHAVN, Secretary.

anyway when they get to Shorncliffe and be replaced by real officers. Perhaps you may meet some of these little lieutenants, not dry behind the ears yet—they're everywhere, you can hardly miss them—and when you do see one stand him up in your mind beside that stalwart six-footer, Lieutenant Foghorn Macdonald, hero of as many battles as he has fingers and toes, and ask yourself how he looks.

Lieutenant Foghorn Macdonald wrote home to one of his Glengarry friends the other day and he had never a complaint to make about the long time he had been kept waiting, but he did say this: "I'm an officer now, but I can't get any uniform." The Lieutenant didn't seem to understand why he

SEVEN GOOD REELS AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

The Majestic program is quite up to the usual high standard of this popular house. "Mongrel and Master" is a three-act political drama of graft and intrigue. There is a typical political boss figuring prominently in the play, and of course right prevails in the long run and the grafter gets his due.

"The Bomb" is a Russian anarchist drama in two powerful acts. It is a rather novel tale and has a most dramatic conclusion.

Both comedies are good, particularly "The Simp and Sophomores." It is a "freshman" story in which the newcomer to college has some hair-raising experiences at the hands of his new chums. The antics of the poor simp brought forth peal after peal of laughter last night.

LABOR MEETING

A special open meeting of the Trades and Labor Council will be held in the Carpenters' Hall Thursday, January 6th, at 8 p. m., for the purpose of furthering the campaign in the interests of Labor representatives in the Municipal Elections. The Labor candidates are invited to address the meeting.

THE BOARD OF TRADE DISCUSSES SHIPBUILDING

Hon. William Manson conferred with the council of the Board of Trade yesterday afternoon on the question of shipbuilding, President Nickerson presiding. Mr. Manson said that Hon. C. E. Tisdall expected to visit Prince Rupert shortly.

At the suggestion of the council, Mr. Manson wired to the minister of public works inviting him to discuss shipbuilding with the local Board of Trade.

Mr. Manson explained that the plans of the government were undecided and that it would be a good thing if the board made suggestions to the government.

Messrs. A. C. Garde, W. P. Lynch and G. L. Clayton were appointed as a committee, with power to add to their number, to go into the matter.

FUN AND EXCITEMENT AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

"The Diamond from the Sky," at the Westholme, goes merrily on from excitement to excitement, while Marmaduke furnishes the fun. This poor soul is still lost in the jungle and his efforts to get out are irresistibly funny. Vivian Marston has at last discovered Arthur Stanley and lays siege to his affections. Her introduction to the hero is dramatic, the young lady steering her power boat straight into Powell's yacht. The elusive diamond is now in Marmaduke's possession.

Mabel Normand provided most of the smiles last night, her "wilful way" making quite a hit with the large audience. "Who Gets Stung" is also a good comedy, while "The Old Chemist" is a dramatic research story.

SHIPMASTERS ELECT NEW OFFICE-BEARERS

A largely attended and most enthusiastic meeting of the members of the Prince Rupert branch of the Shipmasters' and Officers' Association was held in the rooms of the association on the evening of December 30th, when the following office-bearers for the ensuing year were elected: Hon. Pres., Captain E. McCroskie; Hon. vice-pres., Capt. Gilmore; pres., Capt. D. O'Brien; vice-pres., Capt. G. Fritz; secretary, Capt. J. McGee; executive, Captains J. Mulligan, H. Provost, C. F. Hardy, S. Olson, and J. Morrison. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the secretary for his services.

PROHIBITION IS ADOPTED BY 16 ONTARIO TOWNS

Forty-Seven Ontario Municipalities Voted on Prohibition on January First Under Local Option.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Toronto, Jan. 4.—Sixteen of forty-seven Ontario municipalities have gone dry. The "dry" towns are Aurora, Essex, Carleton Place, Parkhill, Petrolia, Uxbridge, Wallaceburg, Bancroft, Bath, Lucan, Oil Springs, Port Perry, Biddulph, Chapleau, London Township, and Sombra.

The bylaw was upheld in Owen Sound, Finch, and North Gower.

The following cities voted against the bylaw by a straight majority: Fort William, Niagara Falls, and Stratford. It was defeated by the three-fifths clause in Belleville, Brantford, Port Arthur, Sarnia, Woodstock, Oakville, Parry Sound, Whitby, Glencoe, Merrickville, Louth Township and North Cayuga.

In several of the latter towns the fight was bitter, and particularly so in Port Arthur where the bylaw was defeated by only four votes.
