"FOGHORN MACDONALD RISEN FROM THE RANK

an honorary colonel the more khaki it takes to fit him—cloth shrinks so where there is any moisture and everybody knows that the dry canteen doesn't apply to the honorary colonels. If it did, the honorary colonel recruiting list would fall off considerably.

All of which will explain to Lieut. Foghorn Macdonald why he cannot get his uniform. What does he want a new uniform for anyway? Think how mused up he will get it in the trenches! On the other hand think how spotless the average honorary colonel keeps his. No mud, no blood, no powder. The honorary colonels have enlisted for overshoes service only. They belong to the home guard. If the home guard shows any signs of gadding about in foreign countries in the danger zone, the honorary colonels may be expected to drop out. This is not lack of courage on their part, but a laudable desire not to spoil their beautiful uniforms, which cost a lot of money.

Like Henry Ford, the honorary colonels believe in peace without bloodshed, and though the real colonels may think the less of them for it, they are putting up a great fight along those lines. For moral victories the honorary colonels are prepared to lay down their lives, but physical violence they spurn. But heavens how they shine when the wounds and the slaughter and all that disagreeable brute force part of it are over! Sir Sam has said somewhere that he is willing to head the brass band and lead the boys to Berlin when the war reaches that stage—by "boys" meaning of course the honorary colonels, who simply revel in parade duty and will always be found in the van on such occasions.—H. F. Gadsby.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

1.—How long am I to serve? Until the end of the war and six months after if required.

2.—What pay shall I receive? Your pay as a private will be $1.00 per day and 10 cents field allowance. Besides this you will be clothed, equipped and subsisted by the Government.

3.—What will my wife receive during my absence? Every month there will be paid her a separation allowance of $20 (also part of your pay) and if this be not enough to comfortably maintain your family, the Canadian Patriotic Fund will further assist them.

4.—What will happen if I am wounded or sick? You will be cared for by the Government and your pay continued until you are discharged. If you are permanently disabled an allowance will be paid you, varying according to the extent of your injury or disability.
