CANADA'S OPPORTUNITY TO ASSIST BELGIUM

There are many Canadians, able bodied and willing to do something for the cause of Britain and her Allies, yet who have not been able to see their way clear to going to the front to actually fight the battles against Germany. Many of these feel that they would do something if the opportunity presented itself and, in ever, that opportunity has come now. Word has come from the front that Canada's soldiers are well clothed and have ample food, so there remains nothing to do in that direction beyond the sending of little luxuries to them.

On the other hand, Belgium—physically our smallest ally, but morally looming as the country which performed the greatest deed at the greatest sacrifice imaginable—is pleading for help. Belgium is asking her allies, particularly prosperous Canada, to send wheat and flour to feed her starving women and children.

Here, if ever, is the opportunity of the able-bodied Canadian to do something for the great cause of humanity and to aid Britain and her allies in their battles against world domination by the German Empire. Patriotism alone should be sufficient to prompt the act. Ten dollars will keep a Belgian woman or child through the winter. But if patriotism is not enough the cause of humanity, the compassion that a person must have for another helpless and starving, should be sufficient. Belgium needs the help of every Canadian who has remained at home and that is the reason that the Belgian Relief Committee, St. Peter's Street, Montreal, is appealing to Canadians. Belgium believes Canada will save her from perishing. Canada must not shatter that faith.

M. P. McCaffery Realizes Task Ahead

To the Editor of The Daily News,

Dear Sir:—In a published letter from Mayor Newton to the Electors of the City of Prince Rupert, I note the following: "The big problem which will confront the next council will be the refootation of the Treasury Certificate issue."

With reference to this statement, I wish to state that if elected, I will spare no efforts to provide for a favorable disposition of these certificates, and the ratepayers of the City of Prince Rupert can rest assured that I will be absolutely certain as to whether the money is costing them six, eight, or ten per cent.

Very truly yours,

M. P. McCAFFERY.
