SELF SACRIFICE OF BRAVE LITTLE BELGIUM

"By her self sacrifice Belgium rescued Europe and rescued France and us as well," said T. P. O'Connor, recently in a patriotic speech, touching upon Belgium's heroic stand during the dark days of August, 1914.

Belgium rescued us; there is no doubt of that, and through her self sacrifice she did it. Britain is safe now and Canada is undoubtedly secure, but Belgium's self sacrifice has not ended and will not end until the war ends. Mr. O'Connor referred chiefly to the economic sacrifice of the nation, but added to that is the loss of husbands, fathers, brothers and sons borne by the women of Belgium—the hunger and cold that is the lot of the mothers and little tots, without work, without resources, without a crust of bread, except that which is given them.

Canada must and Canada undoubtedly will answer the appeal that is being made for these uncomplaining, suffering people by the Belgian Relief Committee. All that is asked is a bag of flour for each to keep them alive a month. Out of the plenty of Canada's rich harvest the Belgian Relief Committee believes this possible. It believes that Belgium's self sacrifice will be recognized concretely by Canada.

"We have to thank Belgium that she turned the scale by holding out at the beginning of the war, by which our own national security from invasion was preserved," says Mr. O'Connor. Canada can thank the soldiers who did this by feeding their starving wives and children.

Baby's Own Soap

After the bath with BABY'S OWN SOAP the skin is smooth, comfortable, and exhales the aroma of freshly cut flowers.

Freedom from skin troubles, explains in some measure the refreshing sleep which "Baby's Own Soap" babies enjoy. Especially for nursery use insist on "Baby's Own".
