"THE FAMILY DIVIDED" AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

"The Family Divided," the 3-act drama at the Westholme, is a gripping photoplay with a strong moral. It is the story of a successful business man and his wife who have been separated for fifteen years because of the latter's groundless suspicions of her husband. They are finally united and all ends happily.

"Some White Hope" is a scream of a comedy, while "Socially Ambitious" is a comedy-drama which depicts the adventures of a tenderfoot from the farm. "When California was Wild" is a tale of the early days in California when the west was "wild and woolly." Charlie Chaplin should have been shown tonight in "The Mix-up," but the film has gone astray en route.

"THE DRAGON'S CLAW" AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

"The Dragon's Claw," the great three-act feature at the Majestic is a remarkable drama. The story opens with the death of a wealthy easterner while on a visit out west. His daughter returns home and marries a wealthy man, who later buys a mine out west. The husband discovers a dragon's claw, which the girl recognizes as a curio possessed by her father, and suspects her husband of murdering the old gentleman. It transpires that the claw is an ornament of a type common amongst the Indians in that country, but, before the young wife finds that out, there are many stirring incidents. It is quite a dramatic tale.

There is also a film of very funny cartoons; a very good Biograph comedy and another striking railroad drama.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Send your subscriptions weekly, monthly or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or to the

Three Mighty Forces Close Linked

Have you ever noted how an audience yawns in the face of an uninspired speaker? On the other hand, have you noted how an audience will lean forward and grasp the chair arms when the speaker reveals enthusiasm?

Enthusiasm is the buoyant expression of truth. To impart belief in anything, a man must believe it deeply himself. We call such a man an enthusiast.

This applies to the written word also—particularly to advertisements. When the manufacturer really believes in his wares, his enthusiasm will almost inevitably find expression in Advertising. And enthusiasm will be contagious—his audience—the readers of the newspaper—will, figuratively speaking, "lean forward and listen intently."

To be convincing an advertisement must convey an unmistakable impression of enthusiasm. This it will only do when the article advertised has inherent worth.

Thus we have:

Sincerity -- Enthusiasm -- Advertising: Three mighty forces, close-linked.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
