FROST-BITTEN RANCHER'S TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE

Henry Hornbeck, the rancher from north of Jasper who was so badly frozen some days ago, reached Rupert last Friday night and is now in the hospital here. His story is one of the saddest ever unfolded in the north. It seems that the unfortunate man, while out hunting, got his fingers frozen. Returning to his shack, he was unable to open his coat to get a match to light his lamp. Seeking warmth, he tumbled into bed with his clothes on, thinking that his hands would be thawed out in the morning. On waking, he found his arms frozen to the elbow.

Setting out for his nearest neighbor's place, eight miles away, in a temperature 40 below, he was overcome by the excruciating pain and became insane. A man out hunting saw him dancing around in the snow, and returned to police headquarters and reported that he had seen a drunken man in the bush. The police went out and brought the poor fellow to Jasper, where he was detained for about a day awaiting a train for Hazelton.

Here, it would appear, the unfortunate man suffered from red-tape as well as frost-bite, as he could have been landed in Edmonton in about eight hours, whereas he was taken to Hazelton, a journey of 36 hours, during which time he was tied down in the baggage car. On arriving at Hazelton, he had to be hauled for over two miles strapped on a sleigh. Now he has been transferred to Prince Rupert. It is said that the sole reason why he was not rushed across into Alberta was that he was found in British Columbia. If the letter of the law is more important than the common law of humanity, there is something seriously wrong, and, if the facts, as given to the Daily News, are correct, there is room for investigation.

BELGIAN FUND

An account has been opened at the Canadian Bank of Commerce in the name of the Belgian Relief Committee and subscriptions for the relief of these worthy people are now in order. There will be no canvass made, and citizens are requested to simply walk into the bank and deposit what they can afford. The object needs no commendation here, as all are aware of the part played by gallant little Belgium in holding up the Germans in their first great raid on France. The fund is economically managed and citizens may rest assured that every dollar will do a hundred cents' worth of work in aiding those patriots. The account will be open until January 31st.

NEW YORK SHOES AND CANADIAN WHEAT

Brussels, Jan. 22.—J. Inganbeck, secretary to His Majesty, King Albert of Belgium, has just sent a cablegram to Mr. Clews, of New York expressing the gratitude of the Belgian sovereigns and their subjects for the work of the Dollar Christmas Fund of New York. The object of this fund, which was inaugurated shortly before Christmas, was to raise money for the purchase of shoes for the destitute, and in many cases, homeless children of Belgium. The response to the appeal was spontaneous and generous and already between $60,000 and $70,000 has been raised and the fund is being continued for the receipt of more donations. Under the dispensing of this money many a cold little foot has been shod with warm boots.

While the results of the New York fund are being felt among the needy of Belgium, preparations are being made for the shipment of wheat that is expected shortly from Canada. New York has provided the most essential article of clothing, but to Canada Belgians are looking for the even greater necessity—food. Already word has been received from the offices of the Belgian Relief Committee, 59 St. Peter Street, Montreal, that the response to the appeal made recently to Canadians has, so far, been generous, and well over thirty-six thousand dollars has been received and that purchasing of wheat will be commenced at once.

The dire necessity in which the Belgians have been plunged by the war resulting from the suddenness with which hostilities descended upon them and the subsequent seizure of supplies by the German invaders, has placed Belgium in such a position that her appeal is merely for the one staple, wheat, with which to make the bread which has become the sole nourishment for many thousands. Canada is the one place to which Belgium can look for wheat and Canada must give generously to save three million people from starvation this winter. One bag of flour, or the small figure of $2.50, will keep one Belgian from starvation a month.

Ladies and Gentlemen:—I wish to thank you for the confidence you have shown in me as your representative on the aldermanic board, by electing me three times to that position. Though my decision to offer my services for the front precludes me from seeking your votes this year, I have not lost interest in Prince Rupert, but will continue to look upon it as my home.

Again thanking you for your support, and with best wishes to the new council and the city generally.
Yours faithfully,

2,000,000
Belgians
Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the Belgian Relief Fund

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Send your subscriptions weekly, monthly or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or to the Central Executive Committee, 59 St. Peter St., Montreal

Three Mighty Forces Close Linked

Have you ever noted how an audience yawns in the face of an uninspired speaker?

On the other hand, have you noted how an audience will lean forward and grasp the chair arms when the speaker reveals enthusiasm?

Enthusiasm is the buoyant expression of truth. To impart belief in anything, a man must believe it deeply himself. We call such a man an enthusiast.

This applies to the written word also—particularly to advertisements. When the manufacturer really believes in his wares, his enthusiasm will almost inevitably find expression in Advertising. And enthusiasm will be contagious—his audience—the readers of the newspaper—will, figuratively speaking, "lean forward and listen intently."

To be convincing an advertisement must convey an unmistakable impression of enthusiasm. This it will only do when the article advertised has inherent worth.

Thus we have:

Sincerity -- Enthusiasm -- Advertising:
Three mighty forces, close-linked.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
