PARSONS AND POLITICS

Mr. McKim, speaking at a Conservative ward meeting in Vancouver recently, in dealing with the charges made by Dr. Mackay and Rev. A. E. Cooke, said that "clergymen should not dabble in political matters when moral issues were not before the people."

Evidently the Tory spokesmen down below are satisfied that there was no moral issue involved in the granting of a measure in behalf of the Dominion Trust Company, by which the public of Canada prices.

the statements are true. The Tories know that the province has been looted, and they are painfully aware that the game is up, and the reign of Bowserism is at an end. Men who have never before taken an active interest in politics are banding themselves together to make this province a credit to the Dominion, instead of a byword for graft and corruption MISFEASANCE CHARGES of the most despicable type.

Another item of $45,000, it is alleged, was loaned illegally by the directors to the Alpha Mort -gage Company, which now owns most of the stock in the C. H. I. C. This money was also loan or reserve fund money, according to the liquidator's claim. The sum however, is secured and no ultimate loss is anticipated. It may be found, however, that the directors should put up this money at once to prevent the creditors from being delayed and do the waiting themselves until the securities can be liquidated.

There is one other matter which is under consideration by the liquidator's solicitors. While AGAINST C. H. I. C. OFFICERS the affairs of the company were in the hands of the Dominion (Continued From Page One.) Trust Company it is alleged that
