

WILL WE EVER WALK ON AIR?

Train Of Thought Inspired By a Letter About "Fruit-a-tives"

MR. D. McLEAN

Orillia, Ont., Nov. 28th, 1914.

"For over two years, I was troubled with Constipation, Drowsiness, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. I tried several medicines, but got no results and my Headaches became more severe. One day I saw your sign which read 'Fruit-a-tives' make you feel like walking on air. This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time, I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. Now I have a good appetite, relish everything I eat, and the Headaches are gone entirely. I cannot say too much for 'Fruit-a-tives', and recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends'.

NAVIGABLE WATERS' PROTECTION ACT.

RICHARD B. MCGINNIS hereby gives notice that he has, under Section 7 of the said act, deposited with the Minister of Public Works at Ottawa, and in the office of the District Registrar of Titles at Prince Rupert, B. C., a description of the site and of the plans for a wharf proposed to be built in Alice Arm, Observatory Inlet, British Columbia, at a point situated about 3-4 miles south of the south-east corner of Lot 1074, Range 5, Coast District, B. C.

AND TAKE NOTICE that after the expiration of one month from the date of the first publication of this notice, Richard B. McGinnis will under Section 7 of the said Act, apply to the Minister of Public Works at his office in the City of Ottawa, for approval of the said site and plans, and for leave to construct the said wharf. DATED at Prince Rupert, B. C., this 22nd day of October, A. D. 1915. RICHARD B. MCGINNIS, Applicant.

ARTHUR AND DICK, THE TWO BEAUTIFUL BOYS

(Continued from Page two.) better than that. Realizing that evil communications corrupt good manners, they separated Dick from his partner in crime, Jam Aikens, who was induced to try Manitoba for what ailed him. Jam tried all right, but as the courts tried four ex-cabinet ministers, shortly afterwards, it cannot be said that he succeeded any too well. Jam is now in a poorer position than the prodigal son—he wants to come back and can't. But Dick—oh Dick's getting along all right. Once clear of Jam, Dick shoots up like a morning glory. Patience and loving kindness, that's the way the government handles Dick now. Only lately Premier Borden took him over to England to see the King on his golden throne and other fine sights, and Dick came back a changed boy. No longer is he the red-hot enfant terrible of the Conservative party. His views underwent a sea change and where he scorched before he now radiates only a pleasant heat. Although Dick saw nobody in England that he fancied more than himself, he formed a higher opinion of the Borden government by comparing it with British statesmanship. At all events he is satisfied to have the Borden government lead him by the hand.

Dick's adoptive parents intend great things for him. The other day when the premier received the cold water people in his private room in the East Block, there was Dick on the big red sofa beside four cabinet ministers, quite one of the family. From which I infer that R. B. Bennett—that is Dick's full name—is being groomed for a cabinet job, minister of munitions or something just as good. He is all dressed up and has some place to go. I don't know just where he is going but he is on the way.—H. F. G.
