MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY FAVORITE AT WESTHOLME

"The Diamond from the Sky" continues to draw big houses at the Westholme, and this week's installment, "The Double Cross," is just as interesting as its predecessors.

One of the most striking features in a very fine show is "The Cycle of Hatred." This is one of the most remarkable dramas seen for some time, and the fact that Florence La Badie, of "Million Dollar Mystery" fame, plays the leading part should be attraction enough in itself. There is also a wonderfully clever child actress in this play, whose work would arrest the attention of any audience.

The Gaumont Graphic provides lots of interesting war news, while "The House Breakers" and "Do Unto Others" provide the fun. It is a show well worth seeing.

PLOT TO INCITE AN UPRISING IN INDIA

From despatches from Aberdeen, Wash., it now appears that the schooner Annie Larsen, which was taken some time ago with a cargo of rifles and small arms, and the steamer Meverick, which had a cargo of "knock-down" submarines and a large quantity of rifles and ammunition, were working in conjunction.

These vessels were outfitted and loaded by Germans with a view to stirring up trouble in India on the outbreak of war. The vessels were to have met at Johnson's Island, in the South Pacific, and then proceed in company to India. However, they missed each other and were ultimately taken as reported some months ago.

Never ask God to do what no man would do for you.

LAND REGISTRY ACT.
Notice Under Section 36.
 TAKE NOTICE that an application has been made to register Sven Holmquist, of Prince Rupert, as the owner in Fee-simple, under two Tax Sale Deeds from the collector of the City of Prince Rupert, to Sven Holmquist, bearing date the 17th day of September, A. D. 1915, in pursuance of a Tax Sale held by said Municipality on or about the 9th day of September, 1914, of all and singular certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying, and being in the City of Prince Rupert, in the Province of British Columbia, more particularly known and described as:—Lot three (3), Block forty-five (45), Section eight (8), and Lot four (4), Block thirty-five (35), Section eight (8), Map 923.

You, and all persons claiming any interest in the said land by descent whose title is not registered under the provisions of the "Land Registry Act" are required to contest the claim of the tax purchaser within forty-five days of the service of this notice upon you. Otherwise you and each of you will be forever estopped and debarred from setting up any claim to or in respect of the said land, and I shall register the said Sven Holmquist as owner in fee.

Your attention is called to section 36 of the "Land Registry Act" and amendments, and especially to the following extract therefrom which relates to the above notice.

"And in default of a caveat or certificate of his pendency being filed before the registration as owner of the persons entitled under such tax sale, all persons so served with notice, or served with notice under subsection (6) of section 195 of the 'Municipal Clauses Act, 1906,' or section 293 of the 'Municipal Act, 1906,' or section 139 of the 'Assessment Act, 1905,' or section 253 of the 'Taxation Act, 1905,' in cases in which notice under this Act is dispensed with as hereinafter provided, and those claiming through or under them and all persons claiming any interest in the land by virtue of any unregistered instrument, and all persons claiming any interest in the land by descent whose title is not registered under the provisions of this Act, shall be forever estopped and debarred from setting up any claim to or in respect of the land so sold for taxes."

Dated at the Land Registry Office, at the City of Prince Rupert, Province of British Columbia, this 19th day of January, A. D. 1916.

The Tale The Wagons Tell

My office window faces a street, close to the railway freight sheds.

All day long a steady stream of trucks and lorries lumber by—loaded with boxes, barrels and bales.

One truck I noticed the other afternoon was particularly interesting. No two boxes were the same, and stencilled on the end of each was the name of some well-known product—soap, tobacco, socks, breakfast food, cocoa, port, tea, chocolates, perfumery and baking powder.

Gathered there in prosaic wooden boxes were the results of thousands of hand's labor in all parts of the world.

The cocoa had been grown in Brazil, shipped to Bristol, transhipped to Montreal and finally distributed from Toronto.

The tea was gathered by swart-skinned natives of the romantic island of Ceylon; from sunny Portugal the luscious, big grapes had been gathered years ago, fermented, bottled and branded with a famous name; from Egypt had come the cotton and from South America the dyes that entered into the product finally stamped with the brand of a well-known hosiery.

There, behind that obviously prosaic truck-load of freight was the whole romance of modern commerce—the skilled production, the universal demand for food, drink and raiment, and the world-wide distribution of the things we use every day.

And then I speculated why we use these things every day, instead of some other things; and that brought me plump back to my own job of advertising.

The names of some of the boxes on the lorry were known everywhere to-day, but had been unknown a few years ago; and I saw then more clearly than ever before that Advertising is really a great channel digger. It is like the Panama Canal. You can sail from Montreal to Vancouver now, around the Horn. You can get there, but it is going to take months. A year or so from now you will sail through the Panama Canal and chop the journey to less than half. A new channel will have been dug.

The great names in commerce to-day are those of the manufacturers who have let modern advertising steam-shovel a channel across the isthmus of distributing difficulties.

The great names in the commerce of to-morrow will be those of men who widen and dredge this channel so that the greater traffic may pass smoothly and quickly from the source of production to the homes of the consumer.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.
 If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
