ALL THINGS NEW

The most amusing part of the by-election campaign in Vancouver is the strenuous effort put forth by the Tory press and speakers to hail the Bowser administration as something entirely new, which will perform miracles in the way of putting the affairs of the province on a proper basis. There is nothing which has been left undone, or badly done, by the McBride-Bowser government which they are not just itching to tackle. They are simply gasping to get at this land problem and fix it so it will stay fixed. They are simply counting the hours between now and the passing of the greatest Workmen's Compensation Act which was ever framed. The Agricultural Credits Bill is ready, in fact has been ready for a considerable time, and all it needs is the money.

To go back over the files of Tory papers prior to the retreat of Sir Richard McBride is most diverting. There we find that Sir Richard was a heaven-sent administrator who had simply to touch anything and it turned to gold. He had simply to breathe his blessing on any scheme and it succeeded. The lands of the province were in good hands and everything possible was being done to bring along the settler. In fact, there was nothing whatever that needed improvement. To improve upon the work of Sir Richard would have appeared like an attempt to paint the lily. Today, Sir Richard is mentioned by the Tories more in sorrow than in anger. His administration has been side-tracked and the word has gone forth from the boss that all things are become new, and that the past must be forgotten.

Hon. C. E. Tisdall eulogised the Workmen's Compensation Act, at his opening meeting on Saturday, but he never attempted to explain why Bowser and the rest of the bunch, on two occasions during the past few years deliberately deposited just such an act in the waste-paper basket. His friend Watson also kindly relieved Mr. Tisdall of the responsibility for the fathering of the Dominion Trust legislation. Who introduced the bill is of little importance; the important fact is that it was introduced, and that by its introduction this fraudulent company was enabled to get away with the savings of thousands of the working people of this province. Bowser admitted that Tisdall had been "lined up" by the late Mr. Arnold. Tisdall is like the little boy who dropped the milk bottle, "I didn't do it; it just happened." A lot that should never have been allowed to happen has happened, and every member of the McBride-Bowser government is culpable. Whether it be soon or late, the price will have to be paid, and the sooner the better for the welfare of the province.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Hon. C. E. Tisdall still sticks to the old term "McBride" government in his speeches in Vancouver. In this at least Mr. Tisdall is perfectly sound, as the Bowser government and the late McBride government are one and the same bunch with the very same little schemes for the perpetuation of a corrupt machine to dominate the province.

The Tories in the south are trotting out all the familiar statistics of increases in all lines of business in the province during the reign of the McBride admin-

A Hot, Nourishing Meal—one that will put vim and energy into the worn-out body and fortify it against exposure—Shredded Wheat Biscuit (heated in the oven to restore crispness) with hot milk supplies all the strength needed for a half-day's work. Also delicious with bananas or other fruits. Made in Canada.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

Meets tonight and will debate the subject, "Resolved, that the Attitude of the United States towards the present war has been in keeping with the highest ideals of the age and to the advancement of Civilization."

Speakers for the affirmative, W. O. Fulton and H. F. McRae, for the negative, D. C. McRae and G. R. Naden.

There is little doubt but that this will be the issue in the presidential election this year. Everybody welcome.

Those increases were made in spite of and not because of that reign.

It is a matter of politics to tell the best side of a story. Tisdall says that our agricultural products have increased fivefold, but he does not attempt to explain why there is a deficit in the finances of the province of $18,000,000 as against a surplus of $8,000,000 when McBride took office. Some day we will know how much of this amount went to keep the bunch in power.

"GLAD" MURPHY DIED FROM FOOTBALL INJURY

W. E. G. Murphy, known throughout Canada as "Glad" Murphy, famous oarsman, hockeyist and rugby player, died in Toronto on Friday, from injuries sustained on October 9th.

Murphy had been completely paralyzed from the neck down since the accident. A delicate operation was performed on his spine a month ago in an effort to save his life, but it proved unavailing.

Murphy was one of the mainstays of the Argonauts and one of the finest rugby players in the country. He was training for overseas service in the aviation corps and intended to make the Argonauts-Hamilton Tigers match in which he was fatally injured, his last game.

Here's where we test the choicest samples of Canada's six million acre wheat crop. We grind them into flour in the little mill you see on the left of the picture. Then comes the supreme test—bread-baking. If the bread is perfect in every way we pronounce the wheat A1 and the flour—ROYAL STANDARD.
