BRITISH COLUMBIA A HORRIBLE EXAMPLE

John H. Humphreys, secretary of the Proportional Representation Society, delivered an address in Montreal recently on proportional representation. In illustrating his lecture he took British Columbia as an example, showing that though the Liberals formed 37% of the electorate at the last election, they were not represented in the legislature. The result was that, instead of parliament being regarded as a provincial institution there, it was looked upon as the property of the successful party. He compared Quebec and Ontario in the same manner, showing how ridiculous the present system of representation is. Under the new plan, the electorate is represented according to the strength of the different parties in state or province.

SOCIAL EVENING IN THE CATHOLIC HALL

The young folks enjoyed to the full a social evening with cards, dancing and music in the Catholic Hall on Wednesday night. There was a large attendance and the entertainment was of the brightest description. Mrs. Fred Henning won the ladies' prize and Mr.
J. C. Gavigan the gentleman's in the whist tournament.

fish. It also contains interesting figures showing the food value of fish as compared with other foods, and gives canning statistics for the past year.

- FACT HUNGER -

As children, our first demand is for nourishment; our second for facts.

All through life we go about searching for information.

We make a new acquaintance;
but before we will accept him as a friend or invite him to our home we ask for facts about him.

We visit a foreign land; and from the moment we step across its border we are asking questions—searching for facts.

We are asked to try a new food product; isn't it instinctive with us to ask at once:

"Who makes this new article?"

"How is it made? what goes into it?"

"Is it worth the price charged for it?"

Facts—we are simply hungry for them.

Strange, isn't it, that we should so often have to search for them? Odd, that some manufacturers still withhold the facts about their product. Not always because they are facts to be ashamed of—for there are many worthy articles yet unadvertised.

But it will not be so much longer. The fact-hunger of the human race is becoming keener and keener. The more facts we get, the keener our relish for more of them.

Soon it will be impossible to sell a man or a woman anything until everything has been told about the goods that can be told through Advertising.

The public has discovered that Advertising tells much-needed facts—that, in fact, Advertising satisfies fact-hunger.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association.
Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
