LUX

LUX dissolves readily in hot water—gives a rich, foamy, cream-like lather and coaxes rather than forces dirt out of clothes. LUX softens hard water so that it cannot harm the daintiest garments or hands, and if anything, it refines the original softness of both. LUX is the pure essence of soap in flakes and

PRINTERS' "PI."

A NEW terror
HAS BEEN added
TO THE war.
THE JOURNAL of
THE TYPOS reports
THAT the AUSTRIANS are LOADING shrapnel
SHELLS with TYPE taken from
PRINTING shops.
SO FAR, this TYPE loaded
SHRAPNEL is BEING used only
AGAINST the RUSSIANS who OUGHT TO BE used to ATTACKS full of
X's, Y's and Z's,

BUT WHAT would a
POOR BRITISH soldier
DO IF he had
PRZEMYSL printed
SHRAPNELLY on the BACK of his NECK or
CZERNOWITZ injected
INTO HIS system?
IT WOULD be TERRIBLE IF the GREEKS were to GET BUSY and BOMBARD the BULGARS and
TURKS with the GREEK alphabet,
BUT IT might END this TYPO terror.

Of course, you can buy cheaper teas, but

"SALADA"

is undoubtedly the most economical and what appears to be 'cheap' in price will prove to be extravagant in use. The fresh young leaves of "Salada" will yield you generous value for your money.

- FACT HUNGER -

As children, our first demand is for nourishment; our second for facts.

All through life we go about searching for information.

We make a new acquaintance; but before we will accept him as a friend or invite him to our home we ask for facts about him.

We visit a foreign land; and from the moment we step across its border we are asking questions—searching for facts.

We are asked to try a new food product; isn't it instinctive with us to ask at once:

"Who makes this new article?"

"How is it made? what goes into it?"

"Is it worth the price charged for it?"

Facts—we are simply hungry for them.

Strange, isn't it, that we should so often have to search for them? Odd, that some manufacturers still withhold the facts about their product. Not always because they are facts to be ashamed of—for there are many worthy articles yet unadvertised.

But it will not be so much longer. The fact-hunger of the human race is becoming keener and keener. The more facts we get, the keener our relish for more of them.

Soon it will be impossible to sell a man or a woman anything until everything has been told about the goods that can be told through Advertising.

The public has discovered that Advertising tells much-needed facts—that, in fact, Advertising satisfies fact-hunger.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
