PRINTERS' "PI."

A VERY innocent STRANGER passed DOWN THIRD Avenue WITH a local TORY recently. OPPOSITE Little's NEWS STAND he PAUSED and said, "IS THIS the local POWER plant?" THE TORY said "N-N-o-o, that's JUST a pump." "TAKING the water OUT OF an old MINE, I suppose?" SAID THE stranger. THE TORY said NOTHING more. LATER, the innocent STRANGER passed THE SAME spot WITH A local GRIT, and asked HIM about the PUMPING plant.

THE GRIT looked THOUGHTFULLY across THE BAY, and SAID "Yes, it MUST have BEEN A gold MINE, for a GANG of Tories TOOK $85,000 OUT OF that HOLE in the GROUND, and WHEN IT petered OUT the GOVERNMENT put in THE PUMP to TEACH the YOUTH of the CITY the ELEMENTS of HYDRAULICS." THE STRANGER thinks THE FOLKS in THE WEST must BE strong on HIGHER education.

- FACT HUNGER -

As children, our first demand is for nourishment; our second for facts.

All through life we go about searching for information.

We make a new acquaintance; but before we will accept him as a friend or invite him to our home we ask for facts about him.

We visit a foreign land; and from the moment we step across its border we are asking questions—searching for facts.

We are asked to try a new food product; isn't it instinctive with us to ask at once:

"Who makes this new article?"

"How is it made? what goes into it?"

"Is it worth the price charged for it?"

Facts—we are simply hungry for them.

Strange, isn't it, that we should so often have to search for them? Odd, that some manufacturers still withhold the facts about their product. Not always because they are facts to be ashamed of—for there are many worthy articles yet unadvertised.

But it will not be so much longer. The fact-hunger of the human race is becoming keener and keener. The more facts we get, the keener our relish for more of them.

Soon it will be impossible to sell a man or a woman anything until everything has been told about the goods that can be told through Advertising.

The public has discovered that Advertising tells much-needed facts—that, in fact, Advertising satisfies fact-hunger.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
