PRINTERS' "PI."

AN AMUSING story
COMES FROM Vancouver
REGARDING the recent ELECTION IN Victoria.
IT SEEMS that
SOME Tory
PHILANTHROPIST paid
THE FARES and
MEALS of certain
VOTERS to go
OVER to the CAPITAL to CAST their BALLOTS for FLUMERFELT, and
MANY of those
ASSISTED voters,
AFTER enjoying
THE TRIP and 75-cent
MEALS at the EXPENSE of the POOR TORY, had
THE NERVE to VOTE for BREWSTER.
NOBODY has the

LEAST RESPECT for
THE TYPE of MAN who will SELL himself
IN THIS fashion,
BUT THIS little EPISODE probably EXPLAINS why
SOME of the TORIES in the HOUSE are so
BITTER against
H. C. BREWSTER.
TO HAVE lost
THE FIGHT was BAD enough, but
TO FIND that
YOU HAVE fed and CARRIED voters for
YOUR OPPONENT is the LAST straw.
MORAL—Let
EACH VOTER pay
HIS OWN fare in FUTURE.

- FACT HUNGER -

As children, our first demand is for nourishment; our second for facts.

All through life we go about searching for information.

We make a new acquaintance; but before we will accept him as a friend or invite him to our home we ask for facts about him.

We visit a foreign land; and from the moment we step across its border we are asking questions—searching for facts.

We are asked to try a new food product; isn't it instinctive with us to ask at once:

"Who makes this new article?"

"How is it made? what goes into it?"

"Is it worth the price charged for it?"

Facts—we are simply hungry for them.

Strange, isn't it, that we should so often have to search for them? Odd, that some manufacturers still withhold the facts about their product. Not always because they are facts to be ashamed of—for there are many worthy articles yet unadvertised.

But it will not be so much longer. The fact-hunger of the human race is becoming keener and keener. The more facts we get, the keener our relish for more of them.

Soon it will be impossible to sell a man or a woman anything until everything has been told about the goods that can be told through Advertising.

The public has discovered that Advertising tells much-needed facts—that, in fact, Advertising satisfies fact-hunger.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
