Wilfrid Laurier regarding the shell contracts, but that this was impossible owing to Sir Wilfrid's illness.

F. B. Carvell produced evidence given him by the chairman of the shell committee which went to show that Mr. Meighen, the attorney-general, hid the facts in regard to the shell contracts while replying to questions in the house.

CHAPLIN AND HAZEL DAWN AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

"The Masqueraders," a great five-act photoplay produced by the Famous Players, is the headliner at the Majestic tonight. It is a play of English country life in the higher walks of society and is both highly interesting and amusing. Hazel Dawn, as a young lady of birth who becomes a barmaid and the wife of a profligate knight, is great.

Charlie Chaplin in "the Tramp" provides two reels of huge fun as usual. Charlie hands out disappet in his own nonchalant and inimitable fashion. This is one of Chaplin's funniest efforts.

A very fine Eclair Gazette completes eight reels of the best.

POLITICAL DRAMA AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

A great political five-act drama entitled "The Frame Up," is the special feature of the Westholme program tonight. The famous George Fawcett, as a guileless, honest old gentleman, is the bright particular star of the piece and he is well worth seeing. The honest old gentleman is put up as mayoralty candidate by the leader of a gang of political crooks who believe that every man has his price. How the crook tries to trap the mayor makes an intensely interesting story, and how the old gentleman foils the gang makes a thrilling climax.

A splendid Universal Weekly and two first-rate comedies in "When Love Laughs" and "Her Speedy Affair" make a show well worth seeing.

GRAVE CRISIS

The Borden government faces the most serious crisis which any Dominion government has ever been called upon to face. It may be that no minister is directly concerned in the profiteering carried on by alleged munitions companies in the United States, but, taking the most lenient view of the situation possible, there has been a display of gross negligence and incapacity. At a time when the people of Britain have been urged to use one lump of sugar instead of two, the men who had the distribution of hundreds of millions of dollars worth of munitions contracts have allowed grafters to get away with millions. Whether any member of the government or the shell committee shared in the graft remains to be seen, but, for the sake of the good name of Canada, it is to be sincerely hoped that they did not.

The members of the government are in a state of consternation and the Conservative papers in the east are loud in their clamor for a thorough investigation, while a few short weeks ago, we were calmly told that this was an Imperial matter with which the Dominion government had nothing whatever to do. The Toronto Telegram (Conservative) accuses Borden of placing a political halter around the necks of the thirty Ontario members and accuses the premier of a "fatal inability to act until action is useless." The Toronto News, while reiterating that the government has never condoned wrongdoing, states that "it will not hesitate to sacrifice a minister of the Crown if that is necessary in the public interest and in order to maintain decent political conditions."

The situation is much too grave for any seeking for party advantage in the matter. Where the good name of Canada is at stake, party must sink miles out of sight. If the statements made by Mr. Kyte are true, and he would not have dared make them unless he had substantial proof, then Canada has received a staggering blow which will prove far more injurious than any diabolical scheme contrived by the Germans could ever have delivered. The barbarians who wrecked the cathedral of Rheims are noblemen compared to men who will drain the life's blood of their own land at such a time, and, even in a calm moment, it would be difficult to conceive of a punishment that would fit the crime.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

When Sir Robert Borden cabled to Sir Sam Hughes to return because of the Allison scandals, Sir Sam replied that he desired a full investigation to be carried out by Sir Charles Davidson. Why Sir Charles Davidson?

Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the debate on the resolution demanding an investigation into the shell contracts said that "the worst feature of the case was not the waste of millions of the public money, but the irreparable loss of time in the delivery of the completed shells so sorely needed at the front."

Prince Rupert manufacturers could not get a contract for shells yet a flute player in a Montreal orchestra shared in contracts for millions of dollars worth.

It now transpires that the Hon. D. Lloyd George instructed Mr. D. A. Thomas to consult with Sir
