Until He Used "Fruit-a-tives" The Great Kidney Remedy

HAGERSVILLE, ONT., Aug. 26th, 1913. "About two years ago, I found my health in a very bad state. My Kidneys were not doing their work and I was all run down in condition. Having seen 'Fruit-a-tives' advertised, I decided to try them. Their action was mild, and the result all that could be expected.

My Kidneys resumed their normal action after I had taken upwards of a dozen boxes and I regained my old-time vitality. Today, I am as well as ever." B. A. KELLY.

Documentary evidence appears to point to the division amongst these middlemen—one of whom was a confidential friend of the Minister of Militia-of a rake-off amounting to a million dollars before arrangements were completed for the manufacture of the fuses.

"From the Minister's confidential friend to the Minister is but a step. No one has charged Sir Sam Hughes with participation in this orgy of war contract graft, but the people of Canada will not be content with negative exculpation. They expect General Hughes to take the stand before a properly constituted Court of Inquiry and declare on oath that he was not a party to Allison's

The Royal Standard Test

Here's where we test the choicest samples of Canada's six million acre wheat crop. We grind them into flour in the little mill you see on the left of the picture. Then comes the supreme test--bread-baking. If the bread is perfect in every way we pronounce the wheat Al and the flour-ROYAL STANDARD.
