

WILL WE EVER WALK ON AIR?

Train Of Thought Inspired By A Letter About "Fruit-a-tives"

MR. D. McLEAN

Orillia, Ont., Nov. 28th, 1914.

"For over two years, I was troubled with Constipation, Drowsiness, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. I tried several medicines, but got no results and my Headaches became more severe. One day I saw your sign which read 'Fruit-a-tives' make you feel like walking on air. This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time, I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. Now I have a good appetite, relish everything I eat, and the Headaches are gone entirely. I cannot say too much for 'Fruit-a-tives', and recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends'.

DAN McLEAN.

Militia for the Dominion of Canada?

Such are the thoughts that rankle in No. 16 and cause it serious infestinal disturbances. It's all very well to sing "Down among the Dead Men Let Him Lie" but there are a whole lot of live ones who will trip him up if he is caught at it. This is no song for drooping spirits. Some suggest a coalition government, the idea being to present the Grits with a share of the blame, but there is no hope in that direction. Others favor the Royal Commission on the principle of the man who sold a 2.10 horse that could not do it under 3.40 and then chided the purchaser for being in such a deuce of a hurry that he couldn't wait a minute.

But when all is said and done the talk comes back to Sir Sam Hughes and his soul-mate Colonel John Wesley Allison. Last session the War Lord's critics were calling him Sir Sham Shoes. This session he goes by the name of Sir Sham Fuse. It is agreed on all sides that his friendship with Colonel John Wesley Allison is one of the greatest, most passionate and most expensive affinities of history. Not David and Jonathan, nor Orestes and Pylades, nor Damon and Pythias, ever cost their country so much money. George Kyte has already advertised some of the gallant charges made by Colonel John Wesley Allison, with Major General Sam the force in reserve, and there are said to be more where that came from.—H. F. G.

The Royal Standard Test

Here's where we test the choicest samples of Canada's six million acre wheat crop. We grind them into flour in the little mill you see on the left of the picture. Then comes the supreme test—bread-baking. If the bread is perfect in every way we pronounce the wheat A1 and the flour—ROYAL STANDARD.
