PRINTERS' "PI."

SIR WILFRID LAURIER
HAD a dream
OF A new city
ON THE north
PACIFIC coast
WHICH was nearer
THE ORIENT
THAN any spot
ON THE continent.
IN HIS vision
HE saw
HUGE docks
AND NAVAL yards;
ELEVATORS
HANDLING the wealth
OF THE prairies;
MIGHTY vessels
LOADING and unloading
AT HER wharves,
WHILE a great
ARTERY of steel
THROBBED with life
ACROSS the continent.
THE CITY

CAME to life
AND no more
AND SIR WILFRID
IN HIS old age
SAYS
HE IS MORE sorry
THAN EVEN the citizens
OF PRINCE RUPERT
MAY be
THAT HIS dream
HAS NOT yet
BEEN fulfilled.
THE AGED statesman
IS frail
AND past
THE ALLOTTED span
OF years,
BUT HIS vision
KEEPS HIM young
AND HE may yet
LIVE to see
THE PRINCE RUPERT
OF HIS dream.
WE HOPE so.

Local News Notes

Mrs. J. H. McLeod returned yesterday from a visit south.

Best quality of household lump and nut coal. Prince Rupert Coal Co., phone 15.

Lieut. Greenhill, of the B. C. Bantams, has opened a recruiting office next door to the Continental Trust Company on Second Avenue.

The question of cheaper rates for cooking power has been laid over for another week, on account of the rush of financial business at the city hall.

The report in The News yesterday to the effect that Neil McKay had been wounded has been confirmed by Mrs. McKay. Mr. McKay was wounded in the thigh.

The city council meeting last night was adjourned until 5 p. m. today in order, if possible, to conclude the business in connection with the bond issue so that Mr. Easton may go south tonight.

Corporal Roe, who is assisting Lieut. Greenhill in recruiting for the Bantams, is an ex-navy man and carries several medals, amongst them the civilian V. C., which he obtained for daring life-saving at sea. The corporal is not big but he evidently assays high.

BE A BOOSTER

Do you know there's lots o' people Settlin' round in every town Growlin' like a broody chicken, Knockin' every good thing down Don't you be that kind of cattle, 'Cause they ain't no use on earth, You just be a booster rooster, Crow and boost for all you're worth. If your town needs boostin', boost 'er, Don't hold back, an' wait to see If some other feller's willing—Sail right in, this country's free; No one's got a mortgage on it, It's yours as much as his; If your town is short on boosters, You get in the boostin' biz. If you see some fellow trying For to make some project go, You can boost it up a trifle; That's your cue to let him know That you're not a gonn' to knock it Just because it ain't your "shout," But you're goin' to boost a little, 'Cause he's got the best thing out. If you know some feller's fallings, Just forget 'em 'cause you know That same feller's got some good points; Them's the ones you want to show. Cast your loaves out on the waters, They'll come back a sayin' true; Mebbe they will come back "battered" When some fellow boosts for you. —Exchange.

How Brown Learned How.

There is a man who makes shoes for children—and sells them to stores all over Canada But he is only just learning how people buy.

It was this way: His wife—let us call her Mrs. Brown—'phoned to him and asked him to buy some underwear for little Brown.

Picture Brown now among the throng of mothers at the "Children's Underwear" counter. He asks for Underwear for a child of six. He looks it over helplessly. What on earth does he know about Children's Underwear? For lack of anything better to say he asks: "Is this good quality?" The answer is short and quite conclusive: "It's Blank's"—naming a well-advertised line. That short word says everything. Brown pays his money and goes home, quite satisfied with his purchase.

Now what bothers Brown—a manufacturer of shoes, is this: How would it affect the purchase of a child's shoes if the salesman said "They're Brown's"?

Nobody knows Brown's shoes. Brown doesn't advertise.

The name Brown signifies nothing when used in connection with children's shoes. The salesman must use all his persuasive wiles to induce people to buy them.

The point is—If the name Brown was as synonymous with Children's Shoes as "Blank's" is with Underwear, wouldn't Brown sell more shoes with less effort?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
