Sunday School Supt. Tells How "Fruit-a-tives" Relieved

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 1st, 1918.
"I have lived in this city for more than 12 years and am well known. I suffered from Rheumatism, especially in my hands. I spent a lot of money without any good results. I have taken 'Fruit-a-tives' for 18 months now and am pleased to tell you that I am well. All the enlargement has not left my hands, and perhaps never will, but the soreness is all gone and I can do any kind of work. I have gained 35 pounds in eighteen months."

CARNIVAL OF THE ALLIES WAS TREMENDOUS SUCCESS

anna and in their care was a cute little mite representing a war founding of Belgium, while Jack Tars protected the flanks, with Japan, India, Russia, Serbia, France and Italy in between. This was one of the most striking features of the carnival.

To describe the decorations in detail is impossible, though special mention should be made of the painting of the "Good Old Lizzie," by Harry Silversides. You must be there tonight to get another look at them for you are bound to have missed something good.

Special mention must be made of the services rendered by Harry Harvey and Charles Balagno in the way of music and also of the Metlakatlah band, which played throughout the evening. The dancing, for which the floor was prepared by George Frizzell at an immense amount of labor, the centre having been transformed into an Australian stock ring, was greatly enjoyed.

Captain Musgrave of the Lilloet and the officers and men of the Galliano did their share in providing flags and in draping them; A. C. Garde assisted in planning the accommodation for the various booths; J. B. Roerig as usual was indefatigable, while Judge Young, as president of the Red Cross Society, has been at the Exhibition Building every day lately, and the ladies of the committee, Mrs. R. L. McIntosh, convener, Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. J. H. McLeod along with all the ladies who managed and assisted at the various booths must have been dreaming carnival for weeks past.

Coughing scatters germs—Stop it

Coughing increases the irritation of the already inflamed mucous membranes and is moreover apt to carry disease to others.
Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil promptly stops coughing, and soon, thanks to its tonic properties, effects a permanent cure.
The wonderful popularity of Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil is especially due to its great value as a permanent lung and bronchial healer.
