MR. "KELLY"

There may have been "plugging" in the Vancouver by-election, and, if there were, it is to be hoped that the guilty party or parties will be made an example of. It is early yet to deal with the enquiry but it is permissible to review the little evidence which has been submitted.

In the first place, it is singularly unfortunate for the Tories who have been trying to show that there was political debauchery on the part of the Liberals, that "Kelly," of Seattle, was the first witness called. Here is a man who freely claims to have practically committed perjury on seven or eight occasions in one day. It is at once very evident that one more case of perjury would not weigh heavily upon the mind of such a man. If he were willing to break the law seven or eight times for $10, how far would he go for $50?

"Kelly" refused to give his real name, and the chairman of the committee upheld him in his refusal. This nameless gentleman also admitted that he had been convicted on a previous occasion in the south. He also admitted that he had rehearsed his evidence before Mr. Bullock-Webster before appearing before the committee. His mentioning that Sullivan, the hotel-keeper, promised him immunity from arrest four days before the government voted on the question, must have been a slight overlook on his part. He also quite forgot which polling places he voted in. This is a plain statement of the facts brought out in the evidence, and requires little further comment.

It will be more interesting when "Kelly" tells who hired him, though probably he has forgotten that or never knew. One of the jokes of the elections in Vancouver and Victoria was that many of the hired Tory voters "double-crossed" their bosses and this may account for the whole miserable business.

The Tories for years have carried "loaded voters' lists" in this province and it will be remembered that, when local Liberals some time ago tried to have many of the dead names removed, the local Tory organ held up its hands in horror. Such a thing as producing a clean, honest voters' list was not to be heard of. It may prove that the Tories have been "hoist with their own petard," and, if they have, they will get little sympathy.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The Tories are hailing the "plugging" investigation with delight as they find it a pleasant respite from the public accounts revelations.

General Townshend seems to have suffered from the usual war office failing of sending a boy on a man's errand.

The Canadian Pacific coast navy has made its first capture. The report did not state whether the Rainbow was accompanied by submarines.

How did John L. Sullivan know that the government would grant immunity from arrest to John J. "Kelly" four days before the government was aware of the fact?

prosperity to develop along right lines, unmolested by a school of thought which would rob the land to make a standing army of European proportions. Preparedness in George Graham's mind probably means a citizen militia, well trained, well armed, well gunned, and the money now spent on gold braid and feathers turned to rifle ranges and good marksmanship. The other school of thought, the one George Graham apprehends, has in mind a Canada with teeth bristling, a permanent corps at least ten times the present size, and a vaster flock of armament millionaires than has been.

This school of thought has gained a lot of headway in Canada owing to circumstances over which Canada has had no control—namely the European war. A majority of the army contractors naturally belong to it, grafters like Colonel John Wesley Allison just naturally love it and Major General Sir Sam Hughes, to say the least, has done nothing to frighten it off. LAND REGISTRY ACT.

Notice Under Section 36.

TAKE NOTICE that an application has been made to register Olaf Hanson, of Prince Rupert, B. C., as the owner in Fee-simple, under a Tax Sale Deed from the Collector of the City of Prince Rupert to Olaf Hanson, bearing date the 10th day of September, A. D. 1915, in pursuance of a Tax Sale held by said Municipality on or about the 9th day of September, 1914, of all and singular certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying, and being in the City of Prince Rupert in the Province of British Columbia, more particularly known and described as—Lot six (6), Block 923.

You and those claiming through or under you, and all persons claiming any interest in the said land by descent whose title is not registered under the provisions of the "Land Registry Act" are required to contest the claim of the tax purchaser within forty-five days of the service of this notice upon you. Otherwise you and each of you will be forever estopped and debarred from setting up any claim to or in respect of the said land, and I shall register the said Olaf Hanson as owner in fee.

Your attention is called to section 36 of the "Land Registry Act" and amendments, and especially to the following extract therefrom which relates to the above notice.

"And in default of a caveat or certificate of his pendency being filed before the registration as owner of the persons entitled under such tax sale, all persons so served with notice, or served with notice under subsection (6) of section 155 of the 'Municipal Clauses Act, 1906,' or section 293 of the 'Municipal Act, 1903,' or section 253 of the 'Taxation Act,' in cases in which notice under this Act is dispensed with as hereinafter provided, and those claiming through or under them and all persons claiming any interest in the land by virtue of any unregistered instrument, and all persons claiming any interest in the land by descent whose title is not registered under the provisions of this Act, shall be forever estopped and debarred from setting up any claim to or in respect of the land so sold for taxes."

Dated at the Land Registry Office, at the City of Prince Rupert, Province of British Columbia, this 19th day of January, A. D. 1916.

brigadiers, the club-chair colonels, the M. P. and M. P. P colonels who draw double pay for staying at home, the genial host of half-seas-over warriors who figure battles out on the tablecloth with bread-crumbs—all these will be for making Canada an armed camp, with day and night shifts. The honorary colonels with whom this country is freckled, not to say pitted, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, will be enthusiastic alumni of the new school of thought. They will not want to hand their handsome uniforms over to the moth balls. They will want to go on strutting.

This is the school of thought which George Graham apprehends will try to convert five hundred thousand soldiers with votes to their ideas. These five hundred thousand soldiers may have ideas of their own, ideas hammered into them by their new life, ideas that may upset a few politicians, but whatever those ideas are they will probably make their own right of way. Meanwhile George Graham deems it advisable to keep tab on any reactionary school of thought which may be hanging around while the soldiers do their thinking.

Canada has got to do some straight thinking and do it quick. Since the booze was abolished this has become a harder country
