PRINTERS' "PI."

"J. J. Kelly,"

THE VOTE expert
FROM Seattle,
REFUSED yesterday
TO REVEAL the name
OF THE party

WHO PAID him
FOR HIS labors
IN Vancouver
ON ELECTION day.

"KELLY" has evidently
BEEN granted immunity
FROM GIVING evidence
AS WELL as IMMUNITY from arrest.

IF THE committee
FAILS to discover
WHO paid

FOR THE votes
IT HAS failed
ENTIRELY.

"KELLY" says
HE wants
TO TELL the truth,

BUT HALF the truth,

IN THIS case,
IS WORSE

THAN a falsehood,
IT MAY be

THAT the committee
DOES not wish

TO discover
ALL the truth,

AND, in that event,
THE PUBLIC will draw

ITS OWN conclusions.
IF the name

OF THE purchaser
OF THE votes

IS NOT revealed
THE WHOLE enquiry

WILL have been A HUGE farce,

AS IT will HAVE succeeded

IN HIDING the truth
INSTEAD

OF FINDING IT.

THE BEAUTY OF SUNLIGHT

is that every garment washed with it bears the impress of purity; a purity begotten of sweet, cleansing oils, and maintained by absolute cleanliness in manufacture; a purity exalted by the co-operation of workers united for the purpose;
a purity demonstrated by the "$5,000 guarantee"
which rests upon every bar of SUNLIGHT SOAP.

A substitute for Sunlight is not as good and never can be. Insist upon the genuine—Sunlight Soap.

The name Lever on Soap is a guarantee of Purity and Excellence.

Modern Beacon Fires

THE old beacon fires were the great advertising mediums of their age.

Though they could not advertise merchandise,
they advertised the things of most vital interest to the people.

Placed on the summits of high hills, bearing a message to thousands of "readers," they were prototypes of those modern fires of Twentieth Century commerce—the "beacon" fires of Newspaper Advertising.

The advertisements appearing in the newspapers to-day are shining lights in the world of commerce, flashing out news and information to a waiting world.

When the modern manufacturer lights

the Beacon Fires of Newspaper Advertising

he places his message before the people in a way that will impart knowledge, beget appreciation and win preference for his goods.

Who can fail to see any day the gleaming messages of "Magic Baking Powder," "Standard Ideal Ware," "Sunlight Soap," "Gillette Safety Razors," "Penman's Underwear," "Infants' Delight Soap," and many others?

To the Manufacturers of Canada

Each day sees more articles given publicity in the newspapers. Are your products and your brand still in the valley of obscurity, or are they blazoned forth by the beacon fires of advertising on the high hill of public favor?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.
If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lunenburg Building, Toronto.
