CORRUPTION

The Journal, with its usual contempt for the facts, again says "A searching investigation made by the Liberals in the House, with every aid given them by the Conservatives, has revealed nothing to warrant the reckless charges made by the Liberals."

Needless to say, the local Tory apologist carefully omits any mention of the selling of 5,760 acres of valuable timber lands to the Puget Sound Lumber Company as second-class agricultural land at $2.50 per acre. To publish the truth about any such transaction would be contrary to the Bowserian policy so closely followed by the subsidised Tory press.

Fortunately for British Columbia, the people are thoroughly conversant with the true facts of the case, as well as with the facts of the Songhees Reserve deal; the Kitsilano deal; the Hannington graft; the $39,000 scandal in connection with the Parliament Buildings extension, in which Harry Price, the coal grafter and Tory campaign manager, and the other patrons of the Bowser government played their usual parts, and the attempt to show, by the evidence of Seattle jail-birds, whose evidence has not yet shown that they were paid by Liberals, that members of the Liberal party brought in "pluggers in the Vancouver election."

One hates to be personal, but surely it is a grave matter for the city of Prince Rupert, when the man who is its acting mayor cannot see any corruption in the Speaker of the Legislature and his partner putting through a deal by which the people of the province were swindled out of hundreds of thousands of dollars. If this is not corruption of the worst description there must be no such thing as corruption.

So far as the Vancouver election enquiry is concerned, there is not a single word in the whole of the evidence that goes to show that "Kelly" and his partners were paid by Liberals, and, unless they can prove so, the only inference to be drawn is that these men are in the pay of the Tories. The Vancouver Sun states that the whole business is a frame-up on the part of the Conservative party and the statement has not yet been denied.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Eberts, of the firm of Eberts & Taylor, who put through the crooked lumber deal disclosed by the public accounts committee, is the Speaker of the Legislature, and the gentleman whose wife drew from the public purse the sums paid out to "sundry indigent persons," in addition to the gratuity arising out of the death of a forty-second cousin who died while in the government service.

The Shell Commission has already shown that the shell committee acted exactly contrary to instructions from the British War Office in regard to the placing of contracts in the United States.

The Seattle "pluggers" have yet to prove that they were paid by Liberals for the part they claim they played in the Vancouver election.

The charges brought against the McBride-Bowser government by the Liberals have been proven up to the hilt and it is easy to understand why A. C. Flumerfelt stated that he accepted no responsibility for the doings of that government.

The Tories in this province have indulged in cattle scandals; coal scandals; land scandals; reserve scandals; timber scandals; parliament building scandals; site graft scandals, and election scandals, yet the Tory organs say that there was nothing corrupt about the government of this province. The fact that they say so is one more nail in the coffin of the Bowser government.

GERMAN SOCIALIST LEADER ARRESTED

Berlin, May 3.—(By wireless to Sayville) Dr. Karl Liebknecht, the Socialist leader, was arrested on May 1, in connection with a May Day demonstration in Berlin.

Dr. Liebknecht on various occasions has made caustic criticisms in the reichstag regarding Germany's military policy. It was recently stated that he had made the remarkable statement that all the deposits in German savings banks had been commandeered in order to assist in financing the latest war loan.
