SNOW in May!
MR. WEATHER clerk
MUST have mislaid
HIS calendar
OR FORGOTTEN to remove
THE LAST two months.
ON LOOKING out
THIS morning,
ONE WAS reminded OF THE story
OF THE old Scotch parson
WHO,
AFTER a summer
OF RAIN and wind,
WAS asked to pray
FOR GOOD weather
DURING the harvest.
SUNDAY came,
AFTER another week
OF TATTERING wind
AND DRIVING rain.
THE OLD MAN prayed
FOR HARVEST weather,

DESCRIBING minutely
THE QUALITY of breeze
AND DEGREE of warmth
DESIRED.
RIGHT in the midst
OF HIS supplication
THE WORST blast of the year
BURST upon the church.
TORRENTS of rain
WERE lashed
AGAINST the windows
BY A TERRIFIC gale,
AND it seemed
AS IF the building
WOULD go.
THE OLD man
STOPPED,
AND in tones
OF DEEP disgust
SAID,
"OH, LORD,
"THIS is
"FAIR rideec'lous."

Modern Beacon Fires

THE old beacon fires were the great advertising mediums of their age.

Though they could not advertise merchandise, they advertised the things of most vital interest to the people.

Placed on the summits of high hills, bearing a message to thousands of "readers," they were prototypes of those modern fires of Twentieth Century commerce—the "beacon" fires of Newspaper Advertising.

The advertisements appearing in the newspapers to-day are shining lights in the world of commerce, flashing out news and information to a waiting world.

When the modern manufacturer lights

the Beacon Fires of Newspaper Advertising

he places his message before the people in a way that will impart knowledge, beget appreciation and win preference for his goods.

Who can fail to see any day the gleaming messages of "Magic Baking Powder," "Standard Ideal Ware," "Sunlight Soap," "Gillette Safety Razors," "Penman's Underwear," "Infants' Delight Soap," and many others?

To the Manufacturers of Canada

Each day sees more articles given publicity in the newspapers. Are your products and your brand still in the valley of obscurity, or are they blazoned forth by the beacon fires of advertising on the high hill of public favor?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
