PRINTERS' "PI."

JOHN SMITH
GOES TO the front
TO HELP defeat
THE barbarians.
HIS wife
AND family
RECEIVE money
FROM the patriotic fund
ALONG with
A LIVING allowance
WHILE Smith fights
FOR the Empire.
POOR SMITH
GETS killed
AND his wife
RECEIVES his pension
BUT is debarred
FROM GETTING money
FROM the patriotic fund.
NOW that
JOHN SMITH
HAS been killed,
AND his widow
HAS to rustle
FOR THE kiddies,
MRS. SMITH

RECEIVES LESS assistance
THAN she did
WHILE Smith lived.
DYING
FOR one's country
IS the height
OF patriotism
BUT it debars
A SOLDIER'S widow
FROM receiving
PATRIOTIC fund money,
ON the ground
THAT she gets
A pension.
THE PENSION alone
IS NOT enough
IF the former
LIVING allowance
AND PATRIOTIC allowance
WAS NOT too much.
IT IS up to Ottawa
TO GET busy
AT once
ON behalf
OF SOLDIERS' widows
AND orphans.

GREAT TRIBUTE TO THE CANADIAN TROOPS

around Ypres, from Boesinghe to Dickebusch, amounted to 85 per cent. of their strength! Of the "Princess Pats," a regiment of over 1,000 men, there are today less than a score alive and well of all who left Canada with the first contingent in October, 1914.

So it is hardly to be wondered at that I heard the remark voiced by the French officer, repeated many times during those weeks by officers and men of the British, French and Belgian forces. A British officer said to me one day:

"You know, those Canadian chaps are a bally independent lot; so jolly cocksure of themselves an' all, an' rather hard to get along with if you don't understand them, but they're first-class fighting men an' no mistake."—William Alderson in Leslie's.

Modern Beacon Fires

THE old beacon fires were the great advertising mediums of their age.

Though they could not advertise merchandise, they advertised the things of most vital interest to the people.

Placed on the summits of high hills, bearing a message to thousands of "readers," they were prototypes of those modern fires of Twentieth Century commerce—the "beacon" fires of Newspaper Advertising.

The advertisements appearing in the newspapers to-day are shining lights in the world of commerce, flashing out news and information to a waiting world.

When the modern manufacturer lights

the Beacon Fires of Newspaper Advertising he places his message before the people in a way that will impart knowledge, beget appreciation and win preference for his goods.

Who can fail to see any day the gleaming messages of "Magic Baking Powder," "Standard Ideal Ware," "Sunlight Soap," "Gillette Safety Razors," "Penman's Underwear," "Infants' Delight Soap," and many others?

To the Manufacturers of Canada

Each day sees more articles given publicity in the newspapers. Are your products and your brand still in the valley of obscurity, or are they blazoned forth by the beacon fires of advertising on the high hill of public favor?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
