

VIOLENT ATTACKS OF DYSPEPSIA

Suffered Tortures Until She Tried "Fruit-a-tives"

St. JEAN DE MATHA, Jan. 27th, 1914.
"After suffering for a long time with Dyspepsia, I have been made well by "Fruit-a-tives." I suffered so much that at last I would not dare to eat for I was afraid of dying. Five years ago, I received samples of "Fruit-a-tives" and after taking them I felt relief. Then I sent for three boxes and I kept improving until I was well. I quickly regained my lost weight—and now I eat, sleep and digest well—in a word, I am fully recovered, thanks to 'Fruit-a-tives.'

WHO CAUSED THE WAR?

As to the cause of the war, the Army and Navy Journal tells the following story as having been related in a debate before the City Club at Hartford, Conn.

"Who caused the war?" That is a long story. Richard Harding Davis went to Europe to find out—that was his business as a reporter. He went into Buckingham Palace and said:

"Now, George, on the level, as between two friends, who caused this rumput?"

"Ah—well—I don't know; you go and ask Nick."

"So Davis went to Petrograd and said, 'Now, Nick, who was it?' And Nick said, 'I don't know; you had better go and ask Bill.' So he went to Berlin, slapped Bill on the back and said, 'Bill, old chap, who was it?'"

"Teddy."

"Teddy?"
"Yes, after he got through being president he went to Africa to hunt for a while, then he went to Stockholm to get a peace prize and then he came back and we fixed up a little battle for him, without getting too near. When the battle was over he said to me, 'Bill, that's a bully army you've got; you can lick any army in the world.' Now, how in h— was I to know that he was a d— liar?"
