SAM HUGHES HAS BEEN criticized BECAUSE he created SUCH an army OF NON-combatant colonels. OTTAWA SWARMS with them. LONDON IS FULL of them. CANADIAN hospitals IN England HAVE their share, NOT of wounded colonels, BUT colonels WHOSE DUTY it is TO CHEER the nurses; RECEIVE visitors, AND LEAD the cripples IN THEIR croquet games. AT LAST, SAM'S real plan FOR the colonels STANDS revealed. THEY form HUGHES' movie troupe, WITH SAM in the lead. AS A MOVIE star, SAM has TEDDY R. BACKED off the stage. SAM will face

AN UNMASKED battery OF cameras WITHOUT flinching. EVEN Kitchener LACKS the courage WHICH Sam displays AT THE CAMERA muzzle. HE CAN review troops WITH ONE eye ON THE troops AND the other ON the camera, AND NO man dare STAND between SAM and the camera. SAM'S sojourn in Ottawa IS ROBBING the world OF MILES of film. AS he left HIS movie operator BEHIND him WHEN he returned AT BORDEN'S request. HOWEVER, BARRING accidents, WE MAY yet see ON THE screen SAM'S entry INTO Berlin.

Purity! Purity! Purity!

The one dominating note that runs all through the making of Sunlight Soap is Purity. The $5,000 Guarantee you get with every single bar is not a mere advertisement. It marks a standard set for the buyers who select the choice Sunlight Soap materials—for the soap boiler—for the expert chemists—for the girls, even, who wrap and pack Sunlight.

All are mindful of the Guarantee—it is a source of gratification to all the Sunlight workers.

Modern Beacon Fires

THE old beacon fires were the great advertising mediums of their age.

Though they could not advertise merchandise, they advertised the things of most vital interest to the people.

Placed on the summits of high hills, bearing a message to thousands of "readers," they were prototypes of those modern fires of Twentieth Century commerce—the "beacon" fires of Newspaper Advertising.

The advertisements appearing in the newspapers to-day are shining lights in the world of commerce, flashing out news and information to a waiting world.

When the modern manufacturer lights

the Beacon Fires of Newspaper Advertising

he places his message before the people in a way that will impart knowledge, beget appreciation and win preference for his goods.

Who can fail to see any day the gleaming messages of "Magic Baking Powder," "Standard Ideal Ware," "Sunlight Soap," "Gillette Safety Razors," "Penman's Underwear," "Infants' Delight Soap," and many others?

To the Manufacturers of Canada

Each day sees more articles given publicity in the newspapers. Are your products and your brand still in the valley of obscurity, or are they blazoned forth by the beacon fires of advertising on the high hill of public favor?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumada Building, Toronto.
