TORY PLOTTING

Just prior to the by-elections in this province, the Tory press published false reports regarding affairs in Saskatchewan. The deliberate lying became so flagrant that J. F. Bryant, the Tory lawyer who represents Mr. Bradshaw on the Regina commission, found it necessary to write to the press denouncing the articles which were sent to a "syndicate of Conservative papers." He stated that the correspondent's articles "insofar as they have dealt with matters of which I have personal knowledge, have been false, misleading and injurious, and in many cases had not the slightest foundation in fact, but were entirely manufactured out of whole cloth.' Mr. Bryant suggests that it would be well to prosecute him under! the criminal code.
