ACCESSORIES

The Tories, through their friends from Seattle, have endeavored to make a lot of party capital out of the Vancouver election enquiry. It has become so much of a party political move that the Conservatives have entirely overlooked the criminal aspect of it. John L. Sullivan, who paid all the expenses of the gang under a promise that the government would refund him the money, stated quite gaily the other day that F. W. Welsh, Tory candidate in Vancouver; C. E. Tisdall, late Tory candidate in Vancouver; Joe Hoskin, of the Conservative Association and Secretary Love of the Conservative Association, all knew about the pluggers coming from Seattle several days prior to the election.

John seems to have been able at any time to lay his hands on his Seattle friends, who had come north to vote for the "wet" candidate. Now "plugging" is a criminal offence just as house-breaking is. Suppose those worthy Tories had been warned that a gang of house-breakers were on their way from Seattle to commit a burglary in Vancouver on a given date, at a given place and at a given time, and the Tory gentlemen omitted to inform the police, where would they be today?

Suppose some John Sullivan entered the witness box and stated that F. W. Welsh and Company knew all about the prospective burglary some days before it happened, matters would look rather serious for the "gentlemen who knew all about it" but did nothing to prevent it, though they knew it to be criminal. The Tories clearly knew far too much about the Seattle deal and the evidence has proven that the Liberals at the head of affairs knew nothing at all about it. Monty White, the man who is supposed to have paid the pluggers, seems to have been a close friend of the Tories, while the Liberals know nothing of him whatever.

The Tories do not seem to have considered "plugging" as a crime, since they took no measures to prevent it, though they knew all about it. According to the evidence of Sullivan, F. W. Welsh, Joe Hoskin and several other Tory leaders are in grave danger of being arrested as "accessories before the fact."

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Billy Ross is planning to run in Prince George at the forthcoming election. Surely things are looking mighty uncertain in Fernie when the minister of lands shifts his camp. Billy will not worry much about the land question in his campaign, his long suite will be the completion of the P. G. E.

It becomes more apparent every day that the men who knew most about the "plugging" operations in Vancouver were the Tories. They seem to have been in possession of all the advance information.

Kaiser Bill has had to make a rush trip to Berlin. Those naughty socialists must be getting busy again, with their awkward questions as to who caused the war.

The Russians seem to be fighting everywhere these days. It will not be surprising to wake up some morning and find that a Russian force has taken Bagdad and released General Townshend's force at Kut-El-Amara.

Colonel Allison seems to have been something of a rolling stone, but he certainly rolled into a bank of moss when he struck the shell commission.

The Victoria election enquiry is going along quietly, but it already is clear that the Tory executive arranged for a good deal of transportation, as they have always done in the past. Paying fares is illegal but that is a mere detail.

LET US CELEBRATE WHEN MAYOR RETURNS

Prince Rupert, B. C.
 May 22nd, 1916.

Editor, Daily News,
 Dear Sir,
 It may not be out of place for me, an ex-alderman knowing many of the difficulties associated with the financing of our city, to extend sincere congratulations to the admirable success attending the tenure of office of our present Mayor and council in effecting a permanent sale of all our city debentures to date.

To Mayor McCaffery, City Treasurer Johnson, City Solicitor Peters and the members of the council, with pleasure I tip my hat to them and offer my deepest appreciation of their untiring efforts in accomplishing a legislative act of such far-reaching moment to every property holder within our city.

To more substantially express an appreciation by the citizens as a whole, I would suggest that the city council, aided by the ladies of the city, lay plans and put into execution a grand fete to be held in the Agricultural Hall, to accomplish the ceremony of burning those ill-fated treasury certificates. A big feed; big dance; big talk, and a grand spirit of rejoicing should welcome the return of our Mayor and City Treasurer.

Let us all forget animosities and be big for once, and every man, woman and child in our city will feel better in enjoying happiness at least for one brief afternoon and night.

Your truly,
 DANIEL W. MCCRISSEY.
