WHITEWASH

The report of the Bowser public accounts committee is just exactly along the lines expected. The evidence is neatly side-tracked and the report reads like a Tory platform oration. The Liberal charges in connection with the Parliament Buildings contracts were proven up to the hilt, McDonald simply being the go-netween for the "hand-out" committee. The squandering of $75,000 of the public money by Joe Matson, $35,000 of which went to two of the Matsonian papers, also turned out just as the Liberals claimed. Matson was unable, or unwilling, to say where much of the money went. The Kitsilano deal was shown to have been carried through with an utter contempt for the laws of the province and the Dominion, while the Read rakeoff of $80,000 needs no further comment.

In short, the affairs of this province have been conducted in typically Tory fashion and the public are thoroughly aware of the fact, no matter how much i white-wash may be spread by the Tory majority on the committee. One can easily imagine what a report by a Roblin committee on the Manitoba scandals would read like, and the Victoria report is exactly of the same character. A Roblin committee would have followed the same old plan of ignoring the evidence and would have reported that Mr. Kelly had made a remarkably good job of the Parliament Buildings, and considering the high cost of maof the bunch are in different fishing industry. circumstances, the case is entirely altered.

ELECTION ENQUIRY

The session is drawing to a close, and the Tories are greatly relieved that they have been able to keep the Liberals from bringing Clancy and White to Victoria. However, the Sullivan wireless messages to Welsh are very eloquent in what they tell of the knowledge Welsh must have had of the transried out his part of the bar- they would bring down. gain and it was up to Welsh and his associates to finish the

That that Weish destroyed the Sulli- ballot boxes? van letters, as, in conjunction with the wireless messages, they would have made interesting reading. The people of Vancouver are thoroughly conversant with the why and the wherefore of the whole business, and they know just exactly Sullivan's position in the matter. When the people of Vancouver are called upon to express an opinion on the Bowser government, they will speak still more emphatically than they did at the by-election.
