NEW CABINET

The Vancouver Sun, in discussing the new Bowser cabinet, has the following to say about the Hon. William Manson's appointment as Minister of Agriculture:

"The Hon. Mr. Manson's qualifications for the portfolio of agriculture are not evident, unless the position of auditor in a sawmill is suitable preparation for the work. The Omicron Herald, just to hand, contains the report of A. W. Harvey, surveyor for the provincial government, on his work in the Francois Lake country last season.

"The chief difficulties of the new settlers in the country," he says, "are lack of transportation facilities and a market for their produce. The only road through the district is that from Burns Lake to Ootsa and the suitable land on this lake and adjacent to the big lakes has all been taken up."

This is the district where the Hon. Wm. Manson said there were hundreds of thousands of acres available for the pre-emptor. If Mr. Manson knows no more about the rest of the province than he does about his own part of it, he is not likely to prove a valuable public servant. If we recollect aright the deputy minister of his department will administer the agricultural credits act. As the deputy is responsible to his chief, the Hon. Mr. Manson will in reality administer the act. The situation is one which would prove most embarrassing to anyone likely to be troubled with conscientious scruples. Such powers cannot be entrusted to the political head of any department without unfortunate results. Instead of becoming a branch of the patronage department the agricultural credits should be administered by a wholly independent commission."

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The Journal admits that 75 per cent. of the people in Victoria are Liberals and that the other 25 are busy keeping the Tories out of jail.

Bowser says that the Brewster writ, if successful, would give him a dictatorship worse than anything in Russia. Bowser has been the dictator of British Columbia for years and the writ makes no difference in this respect. The people will solve the dictatorship business at the general election, when Bowser and his satellites will be sent where they belong.

Speaking of Russia, this was rather an appropriate simile of the premier's, as conditions in British Columbia for several years back have been worse than they were in Russia twenty years ago. The Bowser machine has evolved a system of peonage which beats anything ever attempted even by the Spaniards in South America.

The most pernicious feature of the Bowser system of political slavery is that it has been conducted in the name of democracy.

The day when many a man's bread and butter depended on his tying himself to the Bowser machine is, happily, at an end. British Columbia is once more a free country.

It begins to look as if Sir William Robertson is not to be Kitchener's successor. It is to be hoped that the fact that Sir William rose from the ranks is not to tell against him. The day of promotion on merit only must surely have at last arrived.

Bowser's plan of campaign is to try to make the outlying districts believe that "pluggers from Seattle caused the big flood in Vancouver and Victoria and then he will go to the cities, where they know the real facts of the by-election affair, and tell them that the country is solid behind him.

There are to be wholesale changes amongst the Bowser candidates in the general election. Quite a number of the rubber stamps are evidently reckoned to be out of date.

the end of the session, as a means of obstructing so far as possible our investigations into provincial finances.

There was no need of taking up the time of parliament with such a proceeding. The criminal courts were available and properly equipped to deal with such offenders, and the legislature was not.

Stands for Purity.

I have not been in the least influenced in my regard for Mr. M. A. Macdonald by the proceedings before the so-called select committee, which was obviously appointed for no other purpose than to besmirch his reputation. I believe that when the true facts behind the conspiracy are finally revealed, he will remain even more strongly entrenched in the esteem and regard of the public than ever before.

I have always stood, and shall always stand, for absolutely clean politics. I will not associate with any man or body of men who have been guilty of committing or condoning corrupt practices. I shall not be satisfied with the punishment of the lieutenants, such as Annance or Scott. It will only be when we learn who supplied the money that enabled these men to operate, that we shall know which party is responsible for the disgraceful situation in Vancouver on February 26th, last.

The Liberal party began the investigation by arresting Annance—they will finish it when the responsibility is placed upon the proper shoulders.

Yours truly,
H. C. BREWSTER.
