GOOD MANAGEMENT

When Mayor McCaffery and his council took office it was their intention to reduce civic expenditure to the minimum, but the report and estimates brought down on Monday night must have exceeded the expectations of the most sanguine.

A tax rate of 8% mills net, on an assessment which has been reduced 7½ per cent., is a showing which must rank high in comparison with other municipalities in this province, in fact, the tax rate is the lowest of any municipality in British Columbia. To have effected a saving of $46,000 in the administration of the city's affairs is an achievement of which any council might be justly proud.

Taken in conjunction with the businesslike way in which the city's bond issue was handled, this estimate for the year is positive proof of the calibre of the men who have had charge of our municipal affairs. Mayor McCaffery is very modest about it and takes no credit for the splendid figures brought down, further than to admit that his council had done its work well. The people must feel satisfied that, not only has the council done its work well, but that the city's chief magistrate has brought to the handling of the city's business all the business knowledge and experience which are admittedly his.

ADVANCE RUSSIA

The Russian advance in Galicia takes one back to the earlier stages of the war, and it is quite like old times to read of the taking of Czernowitz. The next important move will be the advance from Dubno with the crossing of the Bug river, the scene of many bloody encounters in the earlier engagements. With the Bug river behind them, the Russians will press on to Lemberg, which will mean the control of the most important railroad centre on that front.

If the Germans make a counter attack upon Riga as a reply to the big Russian forward movement, the probability is that the armies holding the far north part of the Russian front will get sufficient reinforcements from Petrograd and that the Galician army will be free to repeat its historic attack upon Przemyśl. Przemyśl taken, the old battle-line through the Dukla Pass in the Carpathians into Hungary will be the natural line of attack, while the southern portion will be advancing through the mountain defiles from Czernowitz. The whole movement will just be a repetition of the Russian offensive of over a year ago. That it will be much more effective and more lasting seems certain, as the Russian army seems to be in better shape now than at any time during the struggle, its supplies of munitions and artillery having greatly improved. The Russian advance is in all probability the real turning point of the second phase of the war.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

When Bowser comes here he will likely try to tell us that the important issue is the writ issued by H. C. Brewster. The real issue is Bowser and Bowserism.

There is no truth in the rumor that when General Joffre entered the Allied military conference in London he said, "General Hughes, why is not he here?"

It is reported that when Sam Hughes retires from the cabinet he will devote his energies to the writing of a war volume entitled "If I Were Commander-in-Chief." It will be the biggest thing of the kind ever attempted.

The Conservative party in Fernie have nominated a Labor man to fill Billy Ross' shoes in the coming election. Billy's successor was straightforward enough to tell the Tories that when labor questions come up they will find him on the labor side. The Tories made it plain that he could please himself, as whatever he said went. These are changed days in Fernie and the reason for Billy's transference of his affections to Prince George is perfectly clear.

You Owe Yourself this Rare Treat after the heavy meats and the canned vegetables of the Winter—with a jaded stomach and rebellious liver—Shredded Wheat with Strawberries—a dish that is deliciously nourishing and satisfying—a perfect meal, and so easily and quickly prepared. For breakfast, for luncheon or any meal.

Made in Canada.

When the Minister of Lands reaches Prince George he will probably find that the Conservative party there is not in any better case than it is in Fernie.
