"LONDON'S LEGACY" AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT
The big feature at the Westholme tonight is "London's Legacy," a five-act dramatization of Meredith Nicholson's great story which ran in Collier's Magazine. J. Warren Kerrigan is in the lead and it should prove a most interesting and fascinating drama.
There is also a Animated Noz Pictorial, which is always amusing; "A story of Little Italy," a thrilling little play of adventure, and an Essanay film showing winter sports in Quebec.
Tomorrow night is the first of the national concert nights. The program will be made up of Scotch songs and musical numbers.
