INDEPENDENCE

IF further evidence were required that the people of this province have had quite enough of Bowserism it is to be found in the resolution passed by the Conservatives of Duncans, Vancouver Island, in endorsing the candidature of W. H. Hayward, as an Independent Conservative. It has been an open secret for a considerable time that, as an adherent of the Bowser machine, Mr. Hayward would not be acceptable to his constituents at the forthcoming election. Throughout the province there is a general disapproval of the methods adopted by Bowser and his close followers. They have conducted the affairs of the province for the Tory party, and not for the people in general. McBride adopted as his political creed the maxim, "Get in and stay in" and Bowser has followed out the same policy to the letter.

The overwhelming majority obtained by M. A. Macdonald, at the Vancouver by-election, was the first warning which Bowser received that the people were sick and tired of the Bowser method of misgovernment, and, instead of rooting out the iniquitous system of Tory "bossism", Bowser proceeded with an attempt to blackguard the brilliant young member for Vancouver, with disastrous results to the Tory party. Along with the "blackguarding" scheme he brought along a flood of legislation, most of it so ill-considered that the bills had to be remodelled before final passage was possible, devised with the object of gathering in the support which had been lost.

How utterly ineffective the scheme has been was shown by the attitude of the electors at the various Bowser meetings in the north, and that even the Conservatives themselves are disgusted is clearly shown by the resolution of the Duncans Conservatives. Independence of thought and action is something entirely new amongst the Conservatives of this "boss-ridden" province, but it is none the less welcome. The life's blood of any political party worthy of the name is the retention of individual independence on the part of its members. There must be a big streak of Liberalism in the Conservatives of Duncans, for independence of thought is the greatest characteristic of the Liberal party and Liberalism without independence would not exist. The Tories are taunting the Liberals in regard to the difference of opinion between Ralph Smith and H. C. Brewster, evidently failing to see that they are paying the highest compliment which can ever be paid to Liberalism. It will be a sorry day for Canada when her Liberals cease to think for themselves, or refrain from expressing their thoughts, no matter how they may differ from the ideas of others in the party.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Kaiser Wilhelm will gain some valuable information during his stay at Kovel but he is not liable to stay there long as the Russians will very shortly occupy that town.

Berlin reports that Bulgaria is becoming uneasy. Berlin will no doubt be able to sympathise with the Bulgars as the German capital is not particularly comfortable itself just at present.

* * *

German ministers are upbraiding the press of the Fatherland for spreading a feeling of pessimism throughout the country. The press undoubtedly reflects the opinion of the people and the people of Germany have no great cause for optimism, especially if they are getting full reports from the eastern front.

All that is needed in Greece to completely restore the confidence of the Allies is the appointment of Venizelos as premier.

The Germans will shortly have the choice of trying to hold Lemberg and the continuance of the futile Verdun offensive. Which ever choice is made it will prove the wrong one.

His description is as follows:—Age, 38; height, 5 ft., 7 ins.; has brown hair, blue eyes, very fair complexion, and prominent Wellington nose. Information of great interest and a large sum of money awaits him. Will anyone knowing his present whereabouts kindly notify Staff-Captain Sims, 259 Fountain Street, Winnipeg, who will pass on the information. tf
