T. D. PATTULLO AND ORIENTAL LABOR

 about Bowser, though probably not as much as do Mackenzie and Mann and Pat Welch.
 "Macdonald will be re-elected in Vancouver by as large or a larger majority than ever. The Liberal vote, the independent vote and a large Conservative vote, not dependent upon government pay for a living, will snow Bowser and his gang under. The people want sanity and decency in the conduct of the public business.
 "Brewster has measured higher than even his best friends expected. In spite of a trying session that meant about 18 hours a day constant work, he is looking and feeling in excellent health and his feet are right on the ground bringing good common sense to bear upon the many important matters now to the fore.
 "Both Brewster and Macdonald will pay the north a visit some time during this month.
 "The north must send down a solid Liberal delegation. We are determined to make of northern B. C. what her truly great resources render possible. Every time I go south I love to get back to our salubrious climate, our magnificent mountains and our beautiful waterways."

POPULAR STARS AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Anita Stewart and Earle Williams are the stars at the Westholme tonight, appearing in "Two Women," one of the brightest of modern dramas. "The Varsity Race," a two-act drama which is full of lively action, furnishes two other good reels, and "The Busy Bell Boy," a Lubin comedy, provides the fun. "The Story of the Olive," a most interesting picture, completes a good show. There will be a special musical program by P. C. Daugherty.

ANITA STEWART AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

Anita Stewart appears at the Majestic tonight and tomorrow in the great Vitagraph drama "Shadows of the Past." It is a story of political intrigue with, of course, a most interesting love tale as well. It is a play which grips and holds the attention from start to finish and shows Miss Stewart at her best.
 "A Daughter of Earth" and two good comedies complete a first-rate program. There will be special music by the Majestic orchestra with violin solos by William Balagno.

A young maiden in love cries with her eyes; the experienced maiden never.
