TUPPER'S LETTER

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper's letter to M.A. Macdonald, which we reproduce in this issue, is eloquent of the attitude of thinking Conservatives towards the Bowser government and its methods. To those who know him, M. A. Macdonald requires no such certificate of character as Sir Hibbert has furnished, but, outside of Vancouver and Victoria, the brilliant young member for Vancouver is comparatively unknown and Bowser and his gang have toured the province on a blackguarding tour, hoping that by still painting Macdonald black they may perhaps look a little less black themselves, so that it is probably well to notice what a gentleman of the sterling type of Sir Hibbert Tupper thinks about Mr. Macdonald and the charges which the Bowser gang have indirectly, and by insinuation, sought to fasten upon

"None of the mud so persistently thrown at you has stuck," says Sir Hibbert, and "You have signally shown that the reputation of an honest man cannot be affected by the machinations of a desperate, discredited conglomeration of political opponents, even though the public chest be open him.

That there are many more over there. Conservatives who view matters After the Vancouver by-elec- terror into the people of Berlin. tion, the Tory press claimed disgusted all thinking men who addition to artillery.

The Bowser policy has been to crush ruthlessly anything that looked like opposition, but TRADESMEN WANTED FOR the machine is powerless against a man of the sterling character of M. A. Macdonald. In Prince Rupert, the premier had planned to make a similar attack upon T. D. Pattullo, but people of this city know Mr. The sole reason why the attack and the reason why Pattullo two weeks. was attacked was because he had the courage to assist Macdonald in fighting for clean government. The death knell of Bowser and Bowserism has been sounded and they will go down, buried in the mud which they have created.
