SPLENDID CONCERT

The Salvation Army will give a concert in the Salvation Army Hall on Monday evening. A splendid musical program has been arranged and the admission charge is only 10 cents. Captain Cooper and Mrs. Cooper are well worthy of every encouragement in their work and there should be a large audience on Monday night.

PIECE OF SHRAPNEL GOT "SCOTTY" DENNIS

W. G. Dennis, familiarly known to all in Prince Rupert as "Scotty," is now in Scotland recovering from his wounds. "Scotty" had rather a narrow escape as a piece of shrapnel struck him on the forehead, inflicting a nasty wound. The genial printer and poet is hard to kill, however, and is just wearying to be fit again for active service.

KING BAGGOT AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

"Human Hearts," the three-act drama at the Majestic, in which King Baggot plays the leading part, is a most striking story. Baggot, as a village blacksmith who marries a girl from the city and deserts the village girl who loves him sincerely, is magnificent. The marriage is an extremely unhappy one, the young wife from the city becoming tired of the circumscribed village life and longing for the excitement of the city. Their short married life has a tragic ending. The play is splendidly staged, while the acting throughout is of the finest, making a picture which should appeal strongly to all. The rest of the program is good.

SHIPPING FISH

At the board of trade meeting last evening, the question of shipping halibut in bond to Seattle by steamer was discussed and it was decided to take the matter up direct with Premier Borden. The members felt that it was time to take the matter up at the fountain head, since H. S. Clements, M. P., while here recently, gave it as his opinion that "it was time that the people of Prince Rupert and the G. T. P. did something for themselves."

MISS AILEEN FERLUCE AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Miss Aileen Ferluce, the Alaskan prima donna, will give selections from her repertoire at the Westholme tonight, including her great scene from Carmen. All who heard her on Thursday will be present and any who did not should not miss this opportunity of hearing this brilliant young artiste. She will also give harp selections.

"Jane," the great Frohman comedy will also be screened. This is without doubt one of the finest pieces of comedy ever screened, the situations being funny in the extreme, while the acting of Miss Greenwood is remarkably good. This show is something not to be missed.

The returned soldiers' concert will be on Wednesday in the Westholme instead of Monday.
