LIBERALS HELD ROUSING MEETINGS

H. C. Brewster, the Liberal leader, who arrived from the south this morning, accompanied by M. A. Macdonald, states that, wherever the Liberals have held meetings, there has been the greatest enthusiasm displayed, large audiences following the speakers closely and sympathetically on every occasion.

"The most gratifying feature of those meetings," said Mr. Brewster, "was the splendid reception accorded to Mr. Macdonald, whom the Bowser machine has done its utmost to kill. At every meeting, Mr. Macdonald was received with round after round of cheering. The Sullivan gang did all that money could tempt it to do, for the Bowser machine, but the despicable attack failed completely." Mr. Brewster added that it would not be surprising if the Tories tried to bring about an attempted coup by making further arrangements with their friends from Seattle. "They will spend unlimited money in their effort to defeat us," said the Liberal leader.

At Vancouver, Nanaimo, Port Alberni, Duncan, Victoria and Kerrisdale, the Liberal leaders have held great meetings. In Nanaimo, William Sloan will be elected. Mr. Planta, who figured so prominently in the Gosden perjury case, is discredited because of the part he has played recently, and further developments locally have put him out of the running entirely.

At Duncan, as elsewhere, the Liberals had the finest meeting ever held in the district and there is every indication that Kenneth Duncan, a native son whose father gave the place its name, will be elected. The fact that the Tories have nominated Captain Hayward as an "independent" is sufficient evidence of the general opinion regarding Bowser and Company in this constituency.

In Victoria, where the meeting was held on a very hot night, the theatre was filled and M. A. Macdonald was given the most rousing reception of the tour. Right in the centre of the "plugging" investigation and the scene of the Gosden episode, Mr. Macdonald was hailed with tremendous cheering.

In Kerrisdale, the Liberals again held the biggest meeting ever, and again there was the utmost enthusiasm and confidence in the result of the election. Here again, in a suburb of Vancouver, Mr. Macdonald was singled out for special applause and cheering. G. G. McGeer will easily make the grade in Kerrisdale.

WONDERFUL FEAT OF TRANSPORTATION

Saloniki, June 1 (By mail).—The Allies have another wonderful feat to their credit. Over 100,000 men have been brought through seas infected with submarines with never a single mishap or the loss of one man. It is an astounding performance, especially if we take into consideration the means the enemy undoubtedly possessed of knowing all about every departure and the zeal with which the Austrian U-boats particularly must have sought the prize of a Serbian transport. But in spite of their vigilance and their daring and their ruthlessness they have not been able to interfere with the steady flow of troops which has poured into Saloniki regularly, methodically, and unceasingly for the past four weeks. The vessels have been entirely French transports, and great praise is due to skippers and crews for the manner in which they have accomplished their duties, but both the French and the Serbians gladly and gratefully recognize that their achievement would not have been possible without the British navy; that only the constant vigil and unceasing patrolling of our warships has made these Mediterranean seaways clear and safe.

Over 100,000 Serbians are now encamped on the plains and in the valleys somewhere near Saloniki. A fine lot of men they are. Perhaps it has been a case of the survival of the fittest, but these tall, thick-set fellows show no traces of the hardships and sufferings of the retreat and exposure in Albania. Four months' recuperation in Corfu has sloughed away all marks of sickness, toil and privation. These Serbian soldiers look fit to go anywhere and do anything. And the men are as eager as they are fit. It is a new-born army, and, entirely re-equipped with new French and British uniforms, the men look exceedingly smart and soldier-like. Very proud they are of their new clothes, especially of the general service buttons on the British uniforms. It speaks well for the moral stamina of a people that can come through such trials without losing courage or becoming embittered. These soldiers are as cheerful and confident as though the tragic past were not, or had never been. Artless, good-natured and genuine, their faith in the great Allies is implicit. They are sad when they think of

ENEMY ALIENS ARE NO LONGER ADMITTED

Amid scenes of great enthusiasm the following resolution was passed at a special general meeting of the London Chamber of Commerce held at the Cannon-Street Hotel yesterday:

"That the London Chamber of Commerce request all German and Austrian members, whether naturalised or not, to resign, and that in future the London Chamber of Commerce shall be for British-born members and members of the present Allied and neutral countries."

Thus the London Chamber of Commerce has followed the example of the Baltic in deciding to expel all members of enemy origin whether naturalised or not.

The Stock Exchange has also taken a strong stand in the matter.—Daily Mail.

their homes in Serbia, and of the women and children they have left behind. Few have heard anything from their families for over six months. But there is a grim determination about them, an enthusiasm at the thought of the advance, that bodes ill for the enemy that opposes them.—Reuter's Special Service to Vancouver World.

WHALING STEAMER FROM NADEN HARBOR

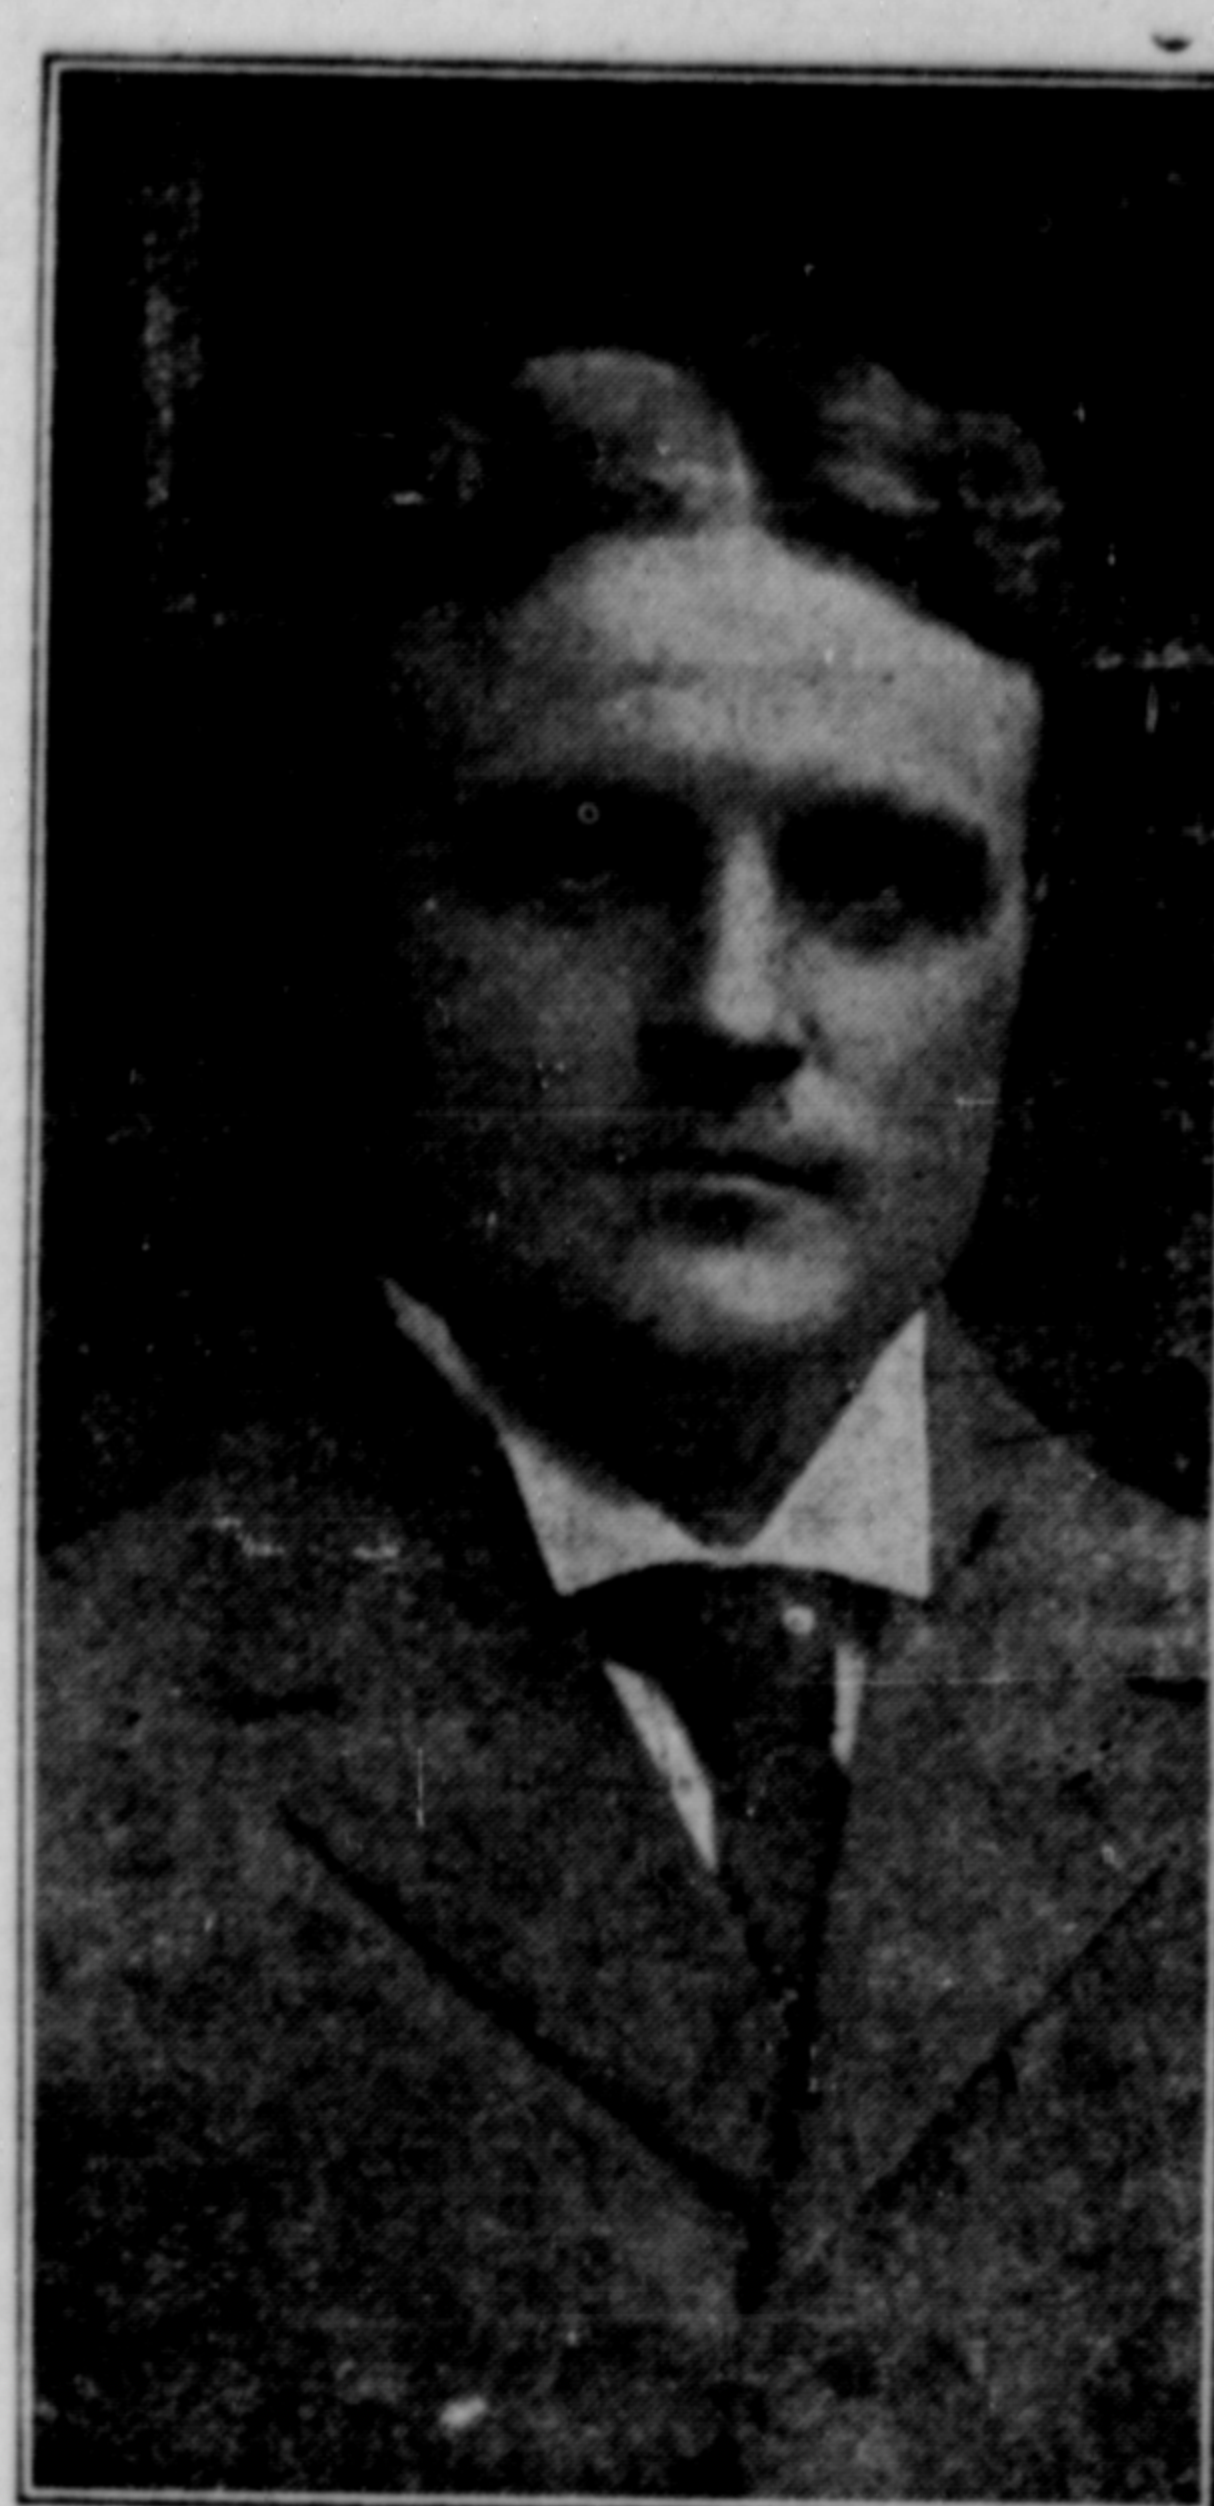

A smart looking tug was seen sailing up the harbor last evening with what appeared to be a gun mounted in her bows. She turned out to be the S. S. Blue of the Naden Harbor whaling fleet and the gun was a very real gun of its kind, for it was a harpoon tube, the torpedo of the whaling business. The harpoon is fired from what is practically a cannon, though it resembles a rifle in that it has a crude trigger and sights. The Blue is registered in Liverpool, England, and, had she been in her home waters would have made a very serviceable minesweeper.

BASEBALL

The game between the Colts and C. C.'s last evening was the fastest of the series. The C. C.'s won by 8 to 5 in nine innings, thus placing the teams on an equal footing in the league. Babe Fortin pitched for the winners, with Territt behind the bat. Hugh Scott and Wally made the Colt's battery. One of the features of a most enjoyable game was a great catch by Joe Hatchford in centre field from a drive by Leo Ives. The next game between these teams should be well worth seeing.

STALWART COSSACK IS RUSSIA'S HERO

"About the most popular man in Russia," says Mr. Julius West, in "Soldiers of the Czar" (Iris Publishing Co.), "at the moment is a Cossack named Cosma Krutchkov. On August 11, 1914, he was on outpost duty at some point near the frontier, with four comrades, when some peasants came and announced the presence of Germans in the neighborhood. It was then 11 p. m., and the Cossack dislikes night work, so nothing happened.

"Early the next morning a detachment of twenty-seven German cavalrymen was seen in the distance. The Cossacks immediately rode to the attack. When a few shots had been exchanged, the Germans, seeing how few their opponents were, turned round and rode to meet them. After a few minutes' fighting, twenty-two Germans lay wounded on the ground, and the remaining three had fled.

"Krutchkov had been wounded sixteen and his horse eleven times. The other Cossacks had each received a few wounds. All were taken to hospital at Vitebsk, where they recovered in a wonderfully short space of time; now they are again at the front. Krutchkov received his Cross and his fame filled all Russia. His vividly-illustrated exploit is to be seen in every other shop window in working class neighborhoods. Pamphlets and songs about him are on sale everywhere. He is the hero of an operetta, the subject of a thousand articles, and the ideal of every Russian nursery."—Tit Bits.

TORY MACHINE METHODS ARE AGAIN EXPOSED

Vancouver, July 13.—Following the disclosures in connection with the contributions to the Vancouver Conservative funds by firms seeking school board contracts, a letter has been discovered among the private papers of J. C. Pendray, the soap manufacturer who sent along $25 and then added the amount to his tender for soap, in which a demand for 5 and 10 per cent on all contracts is hinted at. The amounts were to be added to the invoices and remitted to the Tory secretary.

The following is a copy of the letter, which was sent by the Vancouver manager for Messrs. Pendray to the head of the firm in Victoria.

Got the Wrong Letter.

"Vancouver, April 24, 1916.

"J. C. Pendray: Dear Sir—Mr. Giles called this morning re private letter you sent me and he says it is not the one he expected. What he wants is the letter asking for party funds, and the 5 and 10 per cent. to be put on the invoice. Will you therefore kindly let me have that one?"

"Mr. G—— again stated that it shall not be used in any way whatever without first getting permission. He is at the moment very satisfied with the turn of events after having interviewed the whole of his board. The majority are in favor of his being retained, and many of them have a strong feeling against Fred W., and want to get him out.

"I think we can depend on Giles handling this matter rightly, because after all he has acted honorably and straight, and should have no kick coming from the board, and he is determined to uphold his rights. . . . Giles says he has heard we are to have no more orders. . . .

"By the way, in the event of Mr. Giles getting out he has retained Sir Charles Tupper as counsel, who, as you know, although Conservative, is now cleaning up or trying to clean up the dirty grafters of this government.

"Of course, in the event of our getting a share of the business it will show that F. W. is afraid of you and I hope he is.

"Yours faithfully,

"J. N. DAVEY."

"P.S.—Mr. Giles would like you to send the other letter as soon as possible, as with that in his pocket he would feel like a man with a 'six-shooter,' and he says he would hit F. W. between the eyes. What he wants is moral support."

When the soap enquiry had been disposed of, S. S. Taylor, K. C., cross-questioned F. W. Welsh as to goods supplied to the board by Walter Leek & Company, which firm had supplied thousands of (Continued on Page four.)
